Women Who Broke the Rules: Dolley Madison Kathleen Krull,2015-06-09 A new biography series complete with full color illustrations that celebrates amazing women from acclaimed author Kathleen Krull White House Studies Compendium Robert W. Watson,2007 brings together piercing analyses of the American presidency dealing with both current issues and historical events The compendia consists of the combined and rearranged issues of the journal White House Studies with the addition of a comprehensive subject index Preface Inside the White House Noel Grove,2013 With the White House historical Association Front cover The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp,1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level Madam President Catherine Thimmesh,2008 Takes a look at women in politics in the past present and future The Avenger Takes His Place Howard B. Means,2006 Brings to life one of the most critical moments in American history through the eyes of one of its most misundereestimated presidents Andrew Johnson Until now books on Johnson have focussed exclusively on the impeachment trial these books sold well during Clinton's impeachment proceedings By contrast award winning journalist and novelist Howard Means focuses upon the first 45 days of Johnson's presidency beginning with the assassination of Lincoln on April 14 and ending at the close of May 1865 when Johnson declared his terms of peace and set the nation on a course that still reverberates in our own time Means book shows how the nation's future hung in the balance when a Southerner a slave holder at the start of the Civil War and a Democrat was being called upon to replace the most famous Republican president in history At a time that required the most delicate of political touches Johnson had shown that he was perhaps the most obstinate man in America He had been drunk at his own inauguration as vice president only a month before Not only did Mary Todd Lincoln detest him she also thought he had been among the plotters that murdered her husband How would Johnson lead the nation Would he be a reconciler like Lincoln Or would he as the Radicals and much of the nation expected side with them The Avenger takes his place comes from a poem by Herman Melville that appeared shortly after Lincoln's death For forty five days the nation including a deeply anxious South waited That crucial month and a half is the focus of this book

Notable American Women Susan Ware,2004 This latest volume brings the project up to date with entries on almost 500 women whose death dates fall between 1976 and 1999 You will find here stars of the golden ages of radio film dance and television scientists and scholars civil rights activists and religious leaders Native American craftspeople and world renowned artists For each subject the volume offers a biographical essay by a distinguished authority that integrates the woman's personal life with her professional achievements set in the context of larger historical developments

The Presidential Companion Robert P. Watson,Anthony J. Eksterowicz,2006 Bringing together the work of notable historians political scientists and sociologists The Presidential Companion Readings on the First Ladies offers a collection of essays that demonstrate the political relevance of first ladies throughout U S history and the dramatic expansion of their power during the twentieth century With a foreword by Hillary Clinton's former chief of staff Melanne Vermeer this anthology fills a gap in scholarship about the position of first lady and reveals the political acumen and activism of a number of the holders of this unofficial executive office

Inventing a Voice Molly Meijer Wertheimer,2004 Inventing a Voice is a comprehensive work on the lives and communication of twentieth century first ladies Using a rhetorical framework the contributors look at the speaking writing media coverage and interaction and visual rhetoric of American first ladies from Ida Saxton McKinley to Laura Bush The women's rhetorical devices varied some practiced a rhetoric without words while others issued press releases gave speeches and met with various constituencies All used interpersonal or social rhetoric to support their husbands relationships with world leaders party officials boosters and the public Featuring an extensive introduction and chapter on the First Lady as a Site of American Womanhood Wertheimer has gathered a collection that includes the post White House musings of many first ladies capturing their reflections on public expectations and perceived restrictions on their communication
