Terrorist Chic:

Terrorist Chic Michael Selzer, 1979 Symbolism in Terrorism Jonathan Matusitz, 2014-09-16 The symbolic value of targets is what differentiates terrorism from other forms of extreme violence Terrorism is designed to inflict deep psychological wounds on an enemy rather than demolish its material ability to fight The September 11 2001 attacks for example demonstrated the power of symbolism The World Trade Center was targeted by Al Qaeda because the Twin Towers epitomized Western civilization U S imperialism financial success modernity and freedom The symbolic character of terrorism is the focus of this textbook A comprehensive analysis it incorporates descriptions definitions case studies and theories Each chapter focuses on a specific dimension of symbolism in terrorism and explains the contexts and processes that involve the main actors as well as the symbolism of both the purposes and targets of terrorism Also discussed are new religious movements which represent another important aspect of terrorism such as Aum Shinrikyo the Japanese cult that used sarin gas in the Tokyo subway in 1995 Over forty areas of symbolism are covered throughout the chapters including physical and non physical symbolism linguistic symbolism the social construction of reality rituals myths performative violence iconoclasm brand management logos semiotics new media and the global village This allows for an in depth examination of many issues such as anti globalization honor killing religious terrorism suicide terrorism martyrdom weapons female terrorism public communication visual motifs and cyberspace Main concepts are clearly defined and followed by theory illustrated by international case studies Chapter summaries key points review questions research and practice suggestions are recurring components as well This groundbreaking text encompasses all major aspects of symbolism in terrorism and will be an essential resource for anyone studying terrorism Cinematic Terror Tony Shaw, 2014-11-20 The first history of cinema s treatment of terrorism from the birth of film to today Non-Artistic Kitsch Michał Szostak, 2024-12-29 The book aims to provide a contemporary individual with an extensive but focused set of examples of kitsch in non artistic spheres to create theoretical and practical backgrounds for conscious recognition of kitsch in fields like psychology education politics law religion terrorism television or journalism Two perspectives are underlined 1 the consciousness of the presence and role of kitsch experience within the philosophy of living and 2 the management of kitsch experience within the philosophy of living kitsch as a means for achieving goals Due to the diverse topics covered by particular chapters no unified methodology is applied in the whole volume However due to the kitsch s complex and metaphysical character the only fundament is using the kitsch experience theory Szostak and Su kowski 2020 to narrate the volume coherently The authors apply a qualitative methodological approach extensively using case studies comparative analyses and ethnographic focus Demons, Hamlets and Femmes Fatales Jayne Steel, 2007 The book provides a lively discussion of the ways in which popular fiction appropriates the figure of the Provisional IRA activist and the political conflict within the north of Ireland It looks at how authors recreations or transformations of Irish republicanism might reveal self referential images that are ultimately a product of national identity and or gender identity An important focus of the book interrogates British fascination and fixation with the Provisional IRA and its terrors The many novels discussed in this study include Gerald Seymour Harry's Game Campbell Armstrong Jig Bernard MacLaverty Cal Mary Costello Titanic Town Jennifer Johnston Shadows on our Skin Deidre Madden One by One through the Darkness Technicolor Ultra Mall Ryan Oakley, 2020-06-17 In the commodified future the consequences of a failing society are brought to bear upon one man's ambition and his attempt to escape his own socio-economic hell The world's ecosystems have been destroyed by genetic pollution and cities have evolved into mega malls Budgie is a knife-wielding brass-knuckled young man from the impoverished and brutal red section of Toronto's T-Dot Center When his best friend is murdered and Budgie falls in love with the woman responsible he learns that there's more to life than drugs blood or money To escape his past he must give up everything and everyone he knows and sell his perceptions to an enigmatic and dangerous gang leader Fighting for survival and unwittingly involved in a scheme that only he can stop Budgie must ask himself Does he want to Technicolor Ultra Mall is an ultra-violent science-fiction dystopic novel about the value of being human in a completely commodified world Flip the Script J. Griffith Rollefson, 2017-10-23 Hip-hop has long been a vehicle for protest in the United States used by its primarily African American creators to address issues of prejudice repression and exclusion But the music is now a worldwide phenomenon and outside the United States it has been taken up by those facing similar struggles Flip the Script offers a close look at the role of hip-hop in Europe where it has become a politically powerful and commercially successful form of expression for the children and grandchildren of immigrants from former colonies Through analysis of recorded music and other media as well as interviews and fieldwork with hip-hop communities J. Griffith Rollefson shows how this music created by black Americans is deployed by Senegalese Parisians Turkish Berliners and South Asian Londoners to both differentiate themselves from and relate themselves to the dominant culture By listening closely to the ways these postcolonial citizens in Europe express their solidarity with African Americans through music Rollefson shows we can literally hear the hybrid realities of a global double consciousness Bret Easton Ellis's Controversial Fiction Sonia Baelo-Allué, 2011-04-21 Both literary author and celebrity Bret Easton Ellis represents a type of contemporary writer who draws from both high and the low culture using popular culture references styles and subject matters in a literary fiction that goes beyond mere entertainment His fiction arousing the interest of the academia mass media and general public has fuelled heated controversy over his work This controversy has often prevented serious analysis of his fiction and this book is the first monograph to fill in this gap by offering a comprehensive textual and contextual analysis of his most important works up to the latest novel Imperial Bedrooms Offering a study of the reception of each novel the influence of popular mass and consumer culture in them and the analysis of their literary style it takes into account the controversies surrounding the novels and the changes produced in the shifting terrain of the literary marketplace It offers anyone studying contemporary

American fiction a thorough and unique analysis of Ellis's work and his own place in the literary and cultural panorama

Postwall German Cinema Matthias Frey, 2013 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall there has been a proliferation of German historical films. These productions have earned prestigious awards and succeeded at box offices both at home and abroad where they count among the most popular German films of all time. Recently, however, the country's cinematic take on history has seen a significant new development: the radical style, content, and politics of the New German Cinema. With in-depth analyses of the major trends and films, this book represents a comprehensive assessment of the historical film in today's Germany. Challenging previous paradigms, it takes account of a postwall cinema that complexly engages with various historiographical forms and, above all, with film history itself.

A Reader's Guide to Andrei Bely's "Petersburg" Leonid Livak, 2019-01-15 Andrei Bely's 1913 masterwork Petersburg is widely regarded as the most important Russian novel of the twentieth century. Vladimir Nabokov ranked it with James Joyce's Ulysses, Franz Kafka's Metamorphosis, and Marcel Proust's In Search of Lost Time. Few artistic works created before the First World War encapsulate and articulate the sensibility, ideas, phobias, and aspirations of Russian and transnational modernism as comprehensively. Bely expected his audience to participate in unraveling the work's many meanings, narrative strains, and patterns of details. In their essays, the contributors clarify these complexities, summarize the intellectual and artistic contexts that informed Petersburg's creation and reception, and review the interpretive possibilities contained in the novel. This volume will aid a broad audience of Anglophone readers in understanding and appreciating Petersburg.
