Encounters of Mind Douglas L. Berger, 2015-02-23 Discusses the journey of Buddhist ideas on awareness and personhood from India to China Encounters of Mind explores a crucial step in the philosophical journey of Buddhism from India to China and what influence this step once taken had on Chinese thought in a broader scope The relationship of concepts of mind or awareness to the constitution of personhood in Chinese traditions of reflection was to change profoundly after the Cognition School of Buddhism made its way to China during the sixth century India s Buddhist philosophers had formulated the idea that in order for human beings to achieve perfect enlightenment they had to produce a state of awareness through practice that they described as luminous However once introduced to the Chinese tradition the concept of the luminous mind was to become a condition already found within human nature for the possibility of achieving human ideals This notion of the luminous mind was to have far reaching significance both for Chinese Buddhism and for medieval Confucianism Douglas L Berger follows the transforming path of conceptions of the luminosity of consciousness and the perfectibility of personhood in order to bring into clearer relief the history of Indian and Chinese philosophical dialogue as well as in the hope that such dialogue will be reignited The Reform Advocate ,1915 The American Journal of Roentgenology ,1920 Span ,1921 The Anatomical Record Charles Russell Bardeen,Irving Hardesty,John Lewis Bremer,Edward Allen Boyden,1920 Issues for 1906 include the proceedings and abstracts of papers of the American Association of Anatomists formerly the Association of American Anatomists 1916 60 the proceedings and abstracts of papers of the American Society of Zoologists *The Works of Robert G.
