The Immovable Do:

Percy Grainger's Wind Band Setting of The Immovable Do Phillip Allen Correll, 2009 Grainger the Modernist Suzanne Robinson, Kay Dreyfus, 2016-03-09 Unaccountably Percy Grainger has remained on the margins of both American music history and twentieth century modernism This volume reveals the well known composer of popular gems to be a self described hyper modernist who composed works of uncompromising dissonance challenged the conventions of folk song collection and adaptation re visioned the modern orchestra experimented with ego less composition and designed electronic machines intended to supersede human application Grainger was far from being a self sufficient maverick working in isolation Through contact with innovators such as Ferruccio Busoni L on Theremin and Henry Cowell promotion of the music of modern French and Spanish schools appreciation of vernacular jazz and folk musics as well as with the study and transcription of non Western music he contested received ideas and proposed many radical new approaches By reappraising Grainger s social and historical connectedness and exploring the variety of aspects of modernity seen in his activities in the British American and Australian contexts the authors create a profile of a composer propagandist and visionary whose modernist aesthetic paralleled that of the most advanced composers of his day and in some cases anticipated their practical experiments Louisiana Civil Code 2021 Nicholas M. The Impact of Uniform Laws on the Protection of Cultural Heritage and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage in the 21st Century Toshiyuki Kono, 2010-07-07 Since Emer de Vattel s 1714 1767 pioneering work on the importance of the protection of cultural property in the interests of mankind and human society international law has broadened the scope and strengthened protection in these areas However it is the work of UNESCO and it s original mission of producing international instruments that has in recent years enhanced the protection and safeguarding of various types of cultural heritage Providing an overview of the seven Conventions with the two Protocols adopted by UNESCO and UNIDROIT this book offers comparative analysis of legal schemes for the protection or safeguarding of cultural heritage in 15 countries This is the publication of the reports presented at the First Intersessional Thematic Congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law in November 2008 The Cyclopædia of Education Henry Kiddle, Alexander Jacob Schem, 1877 A Treatise on Private International Law John Westlake, Alfred Frank Topham, 1905 Learning Sequences in Music Edwin Gordon, 2007 The Philosophy of No-Mind Nishihira Tadashi, 2024-04-18 Nishihira Tadashi one of Japan s leading philosophers introduces the deeply experiential philosophy of no mind mushin In everyday Japanese mushin is when one loses oneself in the reality of the present and becomes one with it resulting in one's best performance. However, behind this everyday use is a concept that touches the core of Japanese spirituality. This book explores no mind in its dynamic complexity. It is both the letting go of the calculations of mind and at the same time the arising of a vibrant consciousness in unity with reality. This gives rise to various tensions: Is it about negating or affirming self? Is stillness or activity? How does it relate with social ethics or religious transcendence? And what is stopping no mind from descending into mere mindlessness? These tensional facets are explored through philosophy and history of thought in Japan from pre-Buddhist Japanese thought to Zen Buddhism in D. T. Suzuki and Toshihiko Izutsu to swordsmanship and Noh theater. These historical approaches are brought to the here and now, dialoguing with psychology, ethics, and the experiences of everyday life, and ending with two preliminary practical explorations: What does it mean to care for another and to educate from the point of view of no mind.

The Wind Band Music of Henry Cowell Jeremy Brown, 2018-03-14. The Wind Band Music of Henry Cowell studies the compositions for wind band by twentieth-century composer Henry Cowell, a significant and prolific figure in American fine art music from 1914-1965. The composer is noteworthy and controversial because of his radical early works, his interest in non-Western musics, and his retrogressive mature style, along with notoriety for his imprisonment in San Quentin on a morals charge. Eleven chapters are organized both topically and chronologically. An introduction, conclusion, series of eight appendices, bibliography, and discography complete this comprehensive study, along with an audio playlist of representative works hosted on the CMS website.
