Nixon, 1983 Essays on direct foreign investment and industrialization trends in developing countries discusses theoretical background industrial policies for import substitution and export oriented industrialisation role of multinational enterprises in industrial growth and technology transfer impact on self reliance etc includes a cost benefit analysis of the textile industry in Nigeria and case studies of the Nigerian tyre rubber industry pharmaceutical industry in Colombia foreign capital in manufacturing in Brazil and Pakistan etc References The Industrialisation of Less Developed Countries ,1983 Industrial Structure and Policy in Less Developed Countries Colin Kirkpatrick, N. Lee, Fred Nixon, 2012-08-06 First published in 1984 this textbook analyses at both aggregate and micro economic levels the contemporary industrial conditions in Third World countries and relates this to the process of economic growth and structural transformation Drawing upon both industrial and development economics the authors offer a comprehensive and integrated treatment of the different levels of industrial analysis in less developed countries alongside a wealth of comparative data on industrial structure business concentration and behaviour and industrial policies in a cross section of countries in Africa Asia the Far East and Latin America Economics of Change in Less Developed Countries David Colman, F. I. Nixon, 1986-01-01 The comprehensive range of topics includes the concept and measurement of development economic theory and development economic quality and development human resource development international trade foreign exchange flows and indebtedness agricultural transformation and development industrial development the transnational corporation the transformation of technology inflation stabilization and the IMF A classic book modernized for contemporary study Industrialization and Under-developed Countries Alan B Mountjoy, 2023-11-06 First published in 1966 Industrialization and Under Developed Countries traces the distribution causes and problems of under development and from the point of view of the economic geographer goes on to examine the difficulties and possibilities of industrialization as a remedy Particular emphasis is laid upon the demographic factor both in the world situation and as affecting the way of life of individual countries This book will be of interest to students of economics and geography Industrialization and Urbanization in Latin America Robert Gwynne, 2017-10-30 Originally published in 1985 Industrialization and Urbanization in Latin America focuses on the process of industrialisation in Latin America The book links together the distinctive process of industrialisation to wider issues of urban and regional development in Latin America The book looks in detail at the process of industrialisation in Latin America and the spatial ramifications in Latin American industrialisation it argues that industrial growth and its geographical distribution is a principal cause of increasing disparities in income between regions within Latin American countries This book will appeal to academics working in the field of urbanization and geography The Frontiers of Development Studies Paul Streeten, 1979-06-17 Industrialization and Underdeveloped Countries Alan B. Mountjoy, 2007 Aims to focus attention on the complex and inter related problems social economic political and geographical that come with development placing particular emphasis on the problems which accompany attempts at industrialization Metrology and Standardization in Less-developed Countries Henry Lea Mason, Herbert Steffen Peiser, 1971 Third World Industrialization in the 1980s Raphie Kaplinsky, 2010-11-26 First published in 1984 this work explores the issues surrounding the industrialisation of the Third World at the beginning of the 1980s The expectation that Newly Industrialising Countries would facilitate industrial growth via an outward orientated strategy had begun to be the combination of growing recession growing protectionism and the diffusion of radical microelectronics related technical change In addition the high indebtedness of developing countries made them increasingly dependent on assistance from the IMF and IBRD whose policies increased the tendency towards de industrialisation The papers in this volume explore all of these issues and their implication for LDC industrial strategy in the 1980s
