Hopkins, 2005-12-01 Black theology continually poses a challenge to Christian witness and faith Through a critical analysis of leading religious thinkers Dwight N Hopkins explores the fundamental differences and similarities between black theology in the United States and black theology in South Africa and asks What is the common denominator between the two Part I examines the historical political cultural and theological background of contemporary black theology in both countries Hopkins delves into the distinctive situation of each country focusing on civil rights black power and related political cultural and theological themes in the United States and on civil disobedience black consciousness the unity of politics and culture and political cultural theological themes in South Africa Through interviews with leading black religious scholars Part II explores these theologies in depth Contrasting the cultural theological trend with the political theological trend in the USA Hopkins explores the ideas of theologians Albert B Cleage James H Cone J Deotis Roberts William R Jones Gayraud S Wilmore Charles H Long Cecil W Cone and Vincent Harding In Part III Hopkins examines the same two trends cultural theological and political theological in South Africa Here the focus is on the impact of black consciousness and Soweto and the works of Manas Buthelezi Allan Boesak Simon S Maimela Frank Chikane Bonganjalo C Goba Itumeleng J Mosala Takatso A Mofokeng and Desmond M Tutu Part IV brings black theology USA and black theology South Africa into dialogue Hopkins locates the common denominator between the two theologies that they both claim the Christian gospel as the gospel of liberation for black people struggling against racism and for a holistic humanity physically and spiritually politically and culturally He concludes by looking toward future areas of development and collaboration arguing that an effective black theology of liberation must integrate politics and culture insuring that the two are equal and complementary two tributaries within the same current The Divided Mind of the Black Church Raphael G Warnock, 2023-11-21 An altar call to action from the U S senator and senior pastor at Atlanta s Ebenezer Baptist Church Publishers Weekly What is the true nature and mission of the church Is its proper Christian purpose to save souls or to transform the social order This question is especially fraught when the church is one built by an enslaved people and formed from its beginning at the center of an oppressed community s fight for personhood and freedom Such is the central tension in the identity and mission of the Black church in the United States For decades the Black church and Black theology have held each other at arm s length Black theology has emphasized the role of Christian faith in addressing racism and other forms of oppression arguing that Jesus urged his disciples to seek the freedom of all peoples Meanwhile the Black church even when focused on social concerns has often emphasized personal piety rather than social protest With the rising influence of white evangelicalism biblical fundamentalism and the prosperity gospel the divide has become even more pronounced This book traces the historical significance of the rise and development of Black theology as an important conversation partner for the

Black church Calling for honest dialogue between Black and womanist theologians and Black pastors this fresh theological treatment demands a new look at the church's essential mission An informative work for historians theologians and humanities scholars interested in debating what the Black Church needs to be doing in the 21st century Journal of African American History As a person who is not Black reading this book provided a learning experience for me I could also see this book serving as a way to spark discussion involving all ethnic groups as to how we can all as fellow Christians blend the goals of saving lost people and moving the culture toward equality for everyone Ministry Well written and meticulously researched The Christian Century
