The Inland Revenue Saint Or Sinner:

The Inland Revenue - Saint Or Sinner? John Booth, 2002 This work reviews the Inland Revenue Department from the 1849 statute of creation and the exercise of its statutory function to collect and manage inland revenues It is shown that this management stems from the authority of the Consolidated Fund Act of 1816 that created a Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain and that it held as an office by Commissioners of HM Treasury and in 2001 are the First Lord of the Treasury the prime minister and the Chancellor of the Exchequer Junior Lords are also appointed as Treasury Ministers and comprise a Treasury Board that is stated not to meet and that Board decisions are not recorded and that all are transient political appointees The interpretations of the Treasury Board are from laws made by Parliament and with the function of the courts to interpret and construe the legislation and to tell the nation and Parliament what those laws mean But it is shown that those interpretations are far from clear with many continuing to interpret the their functions for administrative convenience
