Theory and Practice of International Mediation Jacob Bercovitch, 2011-01-05 This volume brings together some of the most significant papers on international conflict mediation by Professor Jacob Bercovitch one of the leading scholars in the field It has become common practice to note that mediation has been and remains one of the most important structures of dealing with and resolving social conflicts Irrespective of the level of political or social organization of their location in time and space and of the political sophistication of a society mediation has always been there to help deal with conflicts As a method of conflict management the practice of settling disputes through intermediaries has had a rich history in all cultures both Western and non Western In some non Western countries especially in the Middle East and China mediation has been the most important and enduring structure of conflict resolution Jacob Bercovitch has been at the forefront of developments in international conflict mediation for more than 25 years and is generally recognized as one of the most important scholars in the field His theoretical and empirical analyses have come to define the parameters in the study of mediation This volume will help scholars and practitioners trace the history of the field its position today and its future and will be of much interest to all students of mediation negotiation conflict management international security and international relations in general

The contribution of NGOs to international conflict resolution Tilman Pradt, 2014-04-11 Non governmental organisations NGOs have become important actors in the globalised world They run aid and relief programmes in the poorest countries support international institutions like the United Nations or are watchdogs of them for example watchdogs of the Bretton Woods institutions In doing so NGOs naturally work permanently with state agencies and it is probably hard to find an NGO which is totally free of any governmental support in financial logistical or informative matters Thus there are strong NGO government connections on a daily work basis NGOs run multiple attempts to contribute to the resolution of conflicts on all political levels They bring together people on the grass root level they try to influence high officials through public pressure and they organise conferences and discussions with members and consultants of the concerned parties The latter approach is analysed in this study But how do NGOs influence the level of official international relations To which degree can NGOs improve the relations of two conflicted parties especially when the conflict is protracted and severe The aim of this study is to define the preconditions of successful NGO mediation to measure the NGO influence as an antecedent condition for successful mediation and to exhibit its limits The underlying assumption is that conflict resolution is more likely if NGO mediation supports this attempt This approach can be labelled as an assumption of constant effect since the focus is on understanding the NGOs influence on international conflict resolution Three cases of NGO led mediation attempts are analysed The cases are selected because of their problematic official relations are chosen under criteria of comparability Thus they have similar conditions framework in common namely in matters of time territory and main actors The case studies analysed are seated in the Middle East because negotiations between Israel and Palestine were and still are highly conflicted protracted and many mediation attempts by third parties have taken place there The analysis of these three cases their differences and similarities shall lead to a better general understanding of the possibilities and limits of NGOs and the necessary preconditions

Small-State Mediation in International Conflicts Jacob Eriksson, 2015-08-19 The Israeli Palestinian conflict is one of the most prolonged contentious and divisive in the modern era But despite the volatile nature of the conflict which frequently flares up in armed confrontations between the two there have been advancements towards a settlement through an admittedly protracted peace process In this book Jacob Eriksson argues that the impact of small states such as Sweden or Norway should not be ignored when it comes to the ongoing efforts to negotiate between Israel and Palestine Although small states lack coercive power the talks they have sponsored in this particular instance such as the Norwegian mediated Oslo Accords have transformed both the conflict and the conceptions of a solution to it Of course the diplomatic and financial power of larger states such as the USA is undoubtedly central to a negotiated solution But by looking at conflict resolution from the perspective of the small state Eriksson offers a unique analysis of power and diplomacy in the context of negotiations and efforts towards peace settlements Rediscovering Gandhi Jai Narain Sharma,2007 The United States and the Berlin Blockade 1948-1949 Avi Shlaim,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1983
