The International Book of Beer Labels, Mats & Coasters Keith Osborne, Brian Pipe, 1979 The International Book of Beer Labels, Mats & Coasters Keith Osborne, Brian Pipe, 1979 Presents an historical survey of labels mats and coasters and provides other valuable information on collecting and preserving these items Encyclopedia of Ephemera Maurice Rickards, 2018-10-24 The joy of finding an old box in the attic filled with postcards invitations theater programs laundry lists and pay stubs is discovering the stories hidden within them The paper trails of our lives or ephemera may hold sentimental value reminding us of great grandparents They chronicle social history They can be valuable as collectibles or antiques But the greatest pleasure is that these ordinary documents can reconstruct with uncanny immediacy the drama of day to day life The Encyclopedia of Ephemera is the first work of its kind providing an unparalleled sourcebook with over 400 entries that cover all aspects of everyday documents and artifacts from bookmarks to birth certificates to lighthouse dues papers Continuing a tradition that started in the Victorian era when disposable paper items such as trade cards die cuts and greeting cards were accumulated to paste into scrap books expert Maurice Rickards has compiled an enormous range of paper collectibles from the obscure to the commonplace His artifacts come from around the world and include such throw away items as cigarette packs and crate labels as well as the ubiquitous faxes parking tickets and phone cards of daily life As this major new reference shows simple slips of paper can speak volumes about status taste customs and taboos revealing the very roots of popular culture The Past in Contemporary Society: Then, Now Peter Fowler, 2002-09-11 Changes or innovations which threaten our heritage arouse great hostility in those who want to preserve the past in its entirety The heritage has become a commodity a device to sell everything from biscuits to country houses Fowler skilfully examines the present relationship between the past and the present analysing the manner in which we mould and interpret the past to fit our current needs He assesses the influence of our heritage in the last decade of the 20th century and with a wide range of examples judges the consequences of the increasing pressures of the heritage industry As well as a diagnosis of where the past is being misused he provides prescriptions for responsible development and a thoughtful interpretation of a common past As well as addressing the needs of the professional involved in the heritage industry he also considers the consumer all those who visit museums enjoy a historic site or an art exhibition or who simply dislike the hijacking of our common heritage by commercial or vested interests Warman's Americana & Collectibles Harry L.
