A Light Too Bright Paulos Gregorios, 1992-01-01 Questioning the very legitimacy of Western liberalism and the modern secular civilization it has given rise to Dr Gregorios critically examines the values of the European Enlightenment of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and the corporate drive of European peoples by which they have dominated the external world He shows that both Capitalism and Marxism as well as Modern Science and Technology are creations of the same spirit he argues The powerful light of Critical Rationality emitted by the European Enlightenment is like the light of the sun It is bright and helpful for seeing this world in detail but too bright to let us see the night sky and the vast expanses of the universe This light too bright eclipses the Transcendent Dr Gregorios invites us to appropriate the other Enlightenment of the overall religious cultural outlook in a new way and to relate it to the valid insights of the European Enlightenment
