Frank Lloyd Wright in New York Jane King Hession,Debra Pickrel,2007 Frank Lloyd Wright in New York The Plaza Years

1954 1959 examines the momentous five year period when one of the world's greatest architects and one of the world's greatest cities coexisted Authors Jane Hession and Debra Prickel bring each of these unequalled characters to life exploring the fascinating contradiction between Wright's often voiced disdain of New York and his pride and pleasure of living in one of the city's greatest landmarks the Plaza Hotel From his suite or Taliesin the Third as it became known Wright supervised construction of the Guggenheim sparred with the New York press and received many famous visitors such as Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller home Michael Carroll a renowned astronomical and paleo artist for more than twenty years has done work for NASA and the Jet Propulsion Laboratory His art has appeared in many magazines including Time National Geographic Sky another is resting at the bottom of the Atlantic aboard Russia's ill fated Mars 96 spacecraft and development without constraining Frank Lloyd Wright: sechzig Jahre lebendige Architektur.- sixty years of living architecture W.M.

Moser,1952 Frank Lloyd Wright Frank Lloyd Wright,Werner Max Moser,1952 The Only West Coast Exhibit of Frank Lloyd Wright's "Sixty Years of Living Architecture". Los Angeles Municipal Art Center,1954 The Architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright William Allin Storrer,2002-04-15 Among the many books available on Wright William Allin Storrer's classic now fully revised and updated remains the only authoritative guide to all of Wright's built work The Usonian House Frank Lloyd Wright,1953 Frank Lloyd Wright Anthony Alofsin,1999-10-26 Interwoven in the essays are stories of champions and critics rivals and acolytes books and exhibitions attitudes toward America and individualism and the many ways Wright's ideas were brought to the world Together the essays represent a first look at Wright's impact abroad some from the perspective of natives of the countries discussed and others from that of informed outsiders BOOK JACKET

Wright on Exhibit Kathryn Smith,2022-07-12 The first history of Frank Lloyd Wright's exhibitions of his own work a practice central to his career More than one hundred exhibitions of Frank Lloyd Wright's work were mounted between 1894 and his death in 1959 Wright organized the majority of these exhibitions himself and viewed them as crucial to his self presentation as his extensive writings He used them to promote his designs appeal to new viewers and persuade his detractors Wright on Exhibit presents the first history of this neglected aspect of the architect's influential career Drawing extensively from Wright's unpublished correspondence Kathryn Smith challenges the preconceived notion of Wright as a self promoter who displayed his work in search of money clients and fame She shows how he was an artist architect projecting an avant garde program an innovator who expanded the palette of installation design as technology evolved and a social activist driven to revolutionize society through design While Wright's earliest exhibitions were largely for other architects by the 1930s he was creating public installations intended to inspire debate and change public perceptions about architecture The nature of his exhibitions expanded with the times beyond models drawings and photographs to include more immersive tools such as slides film and even a full scale structure built especially for his 1953 retrospective at the Guggenheim Museum Placing Wright's exhibitions side by side with his writings Smith shows how integral these exhibitions were to his vision and sheds light on the broader discourse concerning architecture and modernism during the first half of the twentieth century Wright on Exhibit features color renderings photos and plans as well as a checklist of exhibitions and an illustrated catalog of extant and lost models made under Wright's supervision Sechzig Jahre Lebendige Architektur Sixty Years of Living Architecture Frank Lloyd Wright, 2003-01-01 Tastemaker Monica Penick, 2017-06-13 A riveting and superbly illustrated account of the enigmatic House Beautiful editor's profound influence on mid century American taste From 1941 to 1964 House Beautiful magazine's crusading editor in chief Elizabeth Gordon introduced and promoted her vision of good design and better living to an extensive middle class American readership Her innovative magazine sponsored initiatives including House Beautiful's Pace Setter House Program and the Climate Control Project popularized a livable and decidedly American version of postwar modern architecture Gordon's devotion to what she called the American Style attracted the attention of Frank Lloyd Wright who became her ally and collaborator Gordon's editorial programs reshaped ideas about American living and by extension what consumers bought what designers made and what manufacturers brought to market This incisive assessment of Gordon's influence as an editor critic and arbiter of domestic taste reflects more broadly on the cultures of consumption and identity in postwar America Nearly 200 images are featured including work by Ezra Stoller Maynard Parker and Julius Shulman This important book champions an often neglected source the consumer magazine as a key tool for deepening our understanding of mid century architecture and design Frank Lloyd Wright Werner M. Moser, 1952

Frank Lloyd Wright's Hollyhock House Donald Hoffmann, 2011-10-14 Lavishly illustrated study recounts the turbulent history of one of Wright's most imaginative and controversial residential designs More than 120 black and white images complement this perceptive account of the building's design and construction The Essential Frank Lloyd Wright Frank Lloyd Wright, 2010-02-28 Presents a collection of significant writings of Frank Lloyd Wright Frank Lloyd Wright's Monona Terrace David V. Mollenhoff, Mary Jane Hamilton, 1999 Mollenhoff and Hamilton provide the definitive history of the building's design the tempestuous relationship of Wright to his hometown of Madison and the support for and opposition to the project Drawing from the Frank Lloyd Wright Archives thousands of newspaper accounts extensive government records and dozens of interviews the book also features more than 300 illustrations in color and black and white including many published here for the first time Architecture's Odd Couple Hugh Howard, 2016-05-24 In architectural terms the twentieth century can be largely summed up with two names Frank Lloyd Wright and Philip Johnson Wright 1867 1959 began it with his romantic prairie style Johnson 1906 2005 brought down the curtain with his spare postmodernist experiments Between them they built some of the most admired and discussed buildings in American history Differing radically in their views on architecture Wright and Johnson shared a restless creativity enormous charisma and an outspokenness that made each man irresistible to the media Often publicly at odds they were the twentieth century's flint and steel their repeated encounters consistently set off sparks Yet as acclaimed historian Hugh Howard shows their rivalry was also a fruitful artistic conversation one that yielded new directions for both men It was not despite but rather because of their contentious and not always admiring relationship that they were able so powerfully to influence history In Architecture's Odd Couple Howard deftly traces the historical threads connecting the two men and offers readers a distinct perspective on the era they so enlivened with their designs Featuring many of the structures that defined modern space from Fallingwater to the Guggenheim from the Glass House to the Seagram Building this book presents an arresting portrait of modern architecture's odd couple and how they shaped the American landscape by shaping each other
