Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483 1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism

Life as an Experiment Zdenek Penkala, 2009-03-26 We cannot live a full life unless we know who we are unless we know the essence of our being The sciences which have been immensely helpful in the way in which we live our lives have been helpless when it comes to telling us how our life should be lived and what its meaning is

Accepting any philosophical or religious belief on the other hand limits our freedom to learn directly from personal knowledge of reality as any preconceived ideas do not only alter its perception but limit the spectrum of possibilities to which our reason can be applied To those who do not surrender their right to decide for themselves what reality is life offers a unique opportunity to apply their insights both in the worlds within and without and either validates or disproves their findings If they are true to themselves the continuous feedback life offers will reveal to them unique characteristics of our mind which are otherwise limited by its own beliefs
