Small Nations, Big Neighbour Roger de La Garde, William Gilsdorf, Ilja Wechselmann, 1993 The Cultural Industries in Canada Michael Dorland, 1996 Contents Part I Print Industries Book Publishing Rowland Lorimer Periodical Publishing Lon Dubinsky Newspaper Publishing Christopher Dornan Part II Sound Industries Sound Recording Canadian Content Ryan Edwardson, 2008-05-24 A nation is given shape in large part through the cultural activities of its builders Historically nationalists have turned to the arts and media to articulate and institute a sense of unique national identity This was certainly true of Canada in the twentieth century Canadian Content explores ways in which nationhood was defined and pursued through cultural means in Canada throughout the last century As a framework for the study Ryan Edwardson distinguishes between three phases of Canadianization support for the arts and cultured mass media during the colony to nation transition the new nationalist empowerment of multi brow culture and the call for state intervention in the mid 1960s and 1970s and the cultural industrialism initiated by the federal government under Pierre Trudeau in 1968 Examining each phase in its turn Canadian Content looks at Canada as an ongoing postcolonial process of not one but a series of radically different nationhoods each with its own valued but tentative set of cultural criteria for orchestrating and implementing a Canadian national experience Considering the relationship between culture and national identity this study offers an idea of what it means to be Canadian and suggests just how adaptable problematic and ongoing the pursuit of nationhood can be

Cultural Studies Lawrence Grossberg, Janice Radway, 2005-08-05 First published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Mass Media and Free Trade Emile G. McAnany, Kenton T. Wilkinson, 2010-07-05 As United States television programs movies music and other cultural products make their way around the globe a vigorous debate over cultural imperialism is growing in many countries This book brings together experts in economics sociology anthropology the humanities and communications to explore what effects the North American Free Trade Agreement will have on the flow of cultural products among Mexico the United States and Canada After an overview of free trade and the cultural industries the book covers the following topics dominance and resistance cultural trade and identity in relation to Mexico and to French Canada and intellectual property rights Based on present trends the contributors predict that there will be a steadily increasing flow of cultural products from the United States to its neighbors This book grew out of a 1994 conference that brought together leaders of the cultural industries policy makers and scholars It represents state of the art thinking about the global influence of U S cultural industries The European Productivity Agency and Transatlantic Relations, 1953-1961 Bent Boel, 2003 The European Productivity Agency EPA was initially designed as a means to Americanize Western Europe through the transfer of American techniques know how and ideas to the Old Continent It increasingly became a framework within which the member countries sought European solutions to their problems This study of the EPA sheds new light on the nature of European cooperation and transatlantic relations in the 1950s as well as on the changes these relations underwent during the early postwar period IBSS: Sociology: 1993 Vol 43 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation, 1994 This bibliography lists the most important works published in sociology in 1993 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures the IBSS provides researchers and librarians with the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences The IBSS is compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics one of the world's leading social science institutions Published annually the IBSS is available in four subject areas anthropology economics political science and sociology Australian Television and International Mediascapes Stuart Cunningham, Elizabeth Jacka, 1996 Traces the emergence of Australia as a significant exporter of television to the world market Canuck Rock Ryan Edwardson, 2009-01-01 An invaluable resource and an absorbing read Canuck Rock spans from the emergence of rock and roll in the 1950s through to today's international recording industry Independent Filmmaking Around the Globe Doris Baltruschat, Mary P. Erickson, 2015-05-04 Independent Filmmaking around the Globe calls attention to the significant changes taking place in independent cinema today as new production and distribution technology and shifting social dynamics make it more and more possible for independent filmmakers to produce films outside both the mainstream global film industry and their own national film systems Identifying and analyzing the many complex forces that shape the production and distribution of feature films the authors detail how independent filmmakers create work that reflects independent voices and challenges political economic and cultural constraints With chapters on the under explored cinemas of Greece Turkey Iraq China Malaysia Peru and West Africa as well as traditional production centres such as the United States the United Kingdom Canada and Australia Independent Filmmaking around the Globe explores how contemporary independent filmmaking increasingly defines the global cinema of our time
