Iranian Culture Nasrin Rahimieh, 2015-08-27 Throughout modern Iranian history culture has served as a means of imposing unity and cohesion onto society The Pahlavi monarchs used it to project an image of Iran as an ancient civilisation re emerging as an equal to Western nations while the revolutionaries deployed it to remake the country into an Islamic nation Just as Iranian culture has been continually re interpreted the representations and avocations of Iranian identity vary amongst Iranians across the world Iranian Culture Representation and Identity demonstrates these fissures and the incompatibilities that refuse to be written out of national culture analysing works of literature popular music graphic art and film as well as oral narratives Using works produced before and after the 1979 revolution created both inside and outside of Iran this study reveals neglected complexities and contradictions in the field of Iranian cultural production It considers how contested claims to culture whether they originated in Iran or the Iranian diaspora shape our understanding of this culture and what spaces they create for new articulations of it and in doing so offers an important re examination of our collective concept of culture This book would be an excellent resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies and Iranian Studies specifically Iranian culture including film and contemporary literature and the Iranian diaspora

Culture and Cultural Politics Under Reza Shah Bianca Devos, Christoph Werner, 2013-08-22 Culture and Cultural Politics Under Reza Shah presents a collection of innovative research on the interaction of culture and politics accompanying the vigorous modernization programme of the first Pahlavi ruler Examining a broad spectrum of this multifaceted interaction it makes an important contribution to the cultural history of the 1920s and 1930s in Iran when under the rule of Reza Shah Pahlavi dramatic changes took place inside Iranian society With special reference to the practical implementation of specific reform endeavours the various contributions critically analyze different facets of the relationship between cultural politics individual reformers and the everyday life of modernist Iranians Interpreting culture in its broadest sense this book brings together contributions from different disciplines such as literary history social history ethnomusicology art history and Middle Eastern politics In this way it combines for the first time the cultural history of Iran s modernity with the politics of the Reza Shah period Challenging a limited understanding of authoritarian rule under Reza Shah this book is a useful contribution to existing literature for students and scholars of Middle Eastern History Iranian History and Iranian Culture Media Perspectives for the 21st Century Stylianos Papathanassopoulos, 2011-03-17 Media Perspectives for the 21st Century brings together key international scholars to explore concepts topics and issues concerning the communication environment in contemporary democratic societies It combines qualitative and quantitative approaches to provide an interdisciplinary and truly global perspective that reflects the trends theories and issues in current media and communication research The collection raises significant questions about the study of the media by challenging approaches to major media and societal issues and analyses in more depth the range of concerns that shape both the present and the future media landscape and the issues these can create for communication It also investigates the main effects of technological developments on the domain of the news media and journalism Divided into two main sections Part I provides accounts of the role of the media in society and deals with agendas that affect the field of communications studies Part II goes on to examine the world of new media and offers analyses on the developments of the 21st century Chapters deal with various dimensions of media from a number of different perspectives and socio political contexts covering a wide range of topics including Social Networking Political Communication Public Journalism Global Infotainment and Consumer Culture Media Perspectives for the 21st Century will be highly useful to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers and academics in the fields of media and communication studies mass communication journalism and new media Radical Media John D. H. Downing, 2000-08-18 This is an entirely new edition of the author's 1984 study originally published by South End Press of radical media and movements The first and second sections are original to this new edition The first section explores social and cultural theory in order to argue that radical media should be a central part of our understanding of media in history The second section weaves an historical and international tapestry of radical media to illustrate their centrality and diversity from dance and graffiti to video and the internet and from satirical prints and street theatre to culture jamming subversive song performance art and underground radio The section also includes consideration of ultra rightist media as a key contrast case The book's third section provides detailed case studies of the anti fascist media explosion of 1974-75 in Portugal Italy's long running radical media radio and access video in the USA and illegal media in the dissolution of the former Soviet bloc dictatorships Discourses of Ideology and Identity Chris Featherman, 2015-03-24 In this monograph Chris Featherman adopts a discourse analytical approach to explore the ways in which social movement ideologies and identities are discursively constructed in new and old media In the context of his argument Featherman also considers current debates surrounding the role that technologies play in democracy building and global activist networks He engages these critical issues through a case study of the 2009 Iranian presidential election protests looking at both US legacy media coverage of the protests as well as activists use of social media Through qualitative analysis of a corpus of activists Twitter tweets and Flickr uploads Featherman argues that activists social media discourses and protesters symbolic and tactical borrowing of global English contribute to micronarratives of globalization while also calling into question master narratives about Iran commonly found in mainstream Western media accounts This volume makes a timely contribution to discussions regarding the relationship between cyber rhetoric and democracy and provides new directions for researchers engaging with the influence of new media on globalized vernaculars of English
