Forest and Stream ,1904      Littell's Living Age ,1884      Curious Species Whitney Barlow Robles,2024-01-05 A compelling and innovative exploration of how animals shaped the field of natural history and its ecological afterlives Can corals build worlds Do rattlesnakes enchant What is a raccoon and what might it know Animals and the questions they raised thwarted human efforts to master nature during the so called Enlightenment a historical moment when rigid classification pervaded the study of natural history people traded in people and imperial avarice wrapped its tentacles around the globe Whitney Barlow Robles makes animals the unruly protagonists of eighteenth century science through journeys to four spaces and ecological zones the ocean the underground the curiosity cabinet and the field Her forays reveal a forgotten lineage of empirical inquiry one that forced researchers to embrace uncertainty This tumultuous era in the history of human animal encounters still haunts modern biologists and ecologists as they struggle to fathom animals today In an eclectic fusion of history and nature writing Robles alternates between careful historical investigations and probing personal narratives These excavations of the past and present of distinct nonhuman creatures reveal the animal foundations of human knowledge and show why tackling our current environmental crisis first requires looking back in time      The Monthly Bulletin of the Division of Zoology ,1906      North American Indian Life Elsie Clews Parsons,2013-02-20 DIV27 fictionalized essays by noted anthropologists examine religion customs government additional facets of life among the Winnebago Crow Zuni Eskimo other tribes div      In Gods We Trust Scott Atran,2004-12-09 Atran argues that religion is a by product of human evolution just as the cognitive intervention cultural selection and historical survival of religion is an accommodation of certain existential and moral elements in the human condition      Rosicrucian Digest ,1964      An Encyclopedia of Shamanism Volume 2 Christina Pratt,2007-08-01 Shamanism can be defined as the practice of initiated shamans who are distinguished by their mastery of a range of altered states of consciousness Shamanism arises from the actions the shaman takes in non ordinary reality and the results of those actions in ordinary reality It is not a religion yet it demands spiritual discipline and personal sacrifice from the mature shaman who seeks the highest stages of mystical development      A New Malagasy-English Dictionary James Richardson,1885      Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1884      The All-seeing Eye ,1926      Everybody's Magazine ,1910      The Living Age ,1884      Publishers' Circular ,1922      National Message and Banner ,1954      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1922      Eupolemius Sextus Amarcus,2011-11-21 The Satires of Amarcus unrelentingly attack both secular vices and ecclesiastical abuses of the late eleventh century The Eupolemius is a late eleventh century Latin epic that recasts salvation history from Lucifer s fall through Christ s resurrection fusing Greek and Hebrew components within a uniquely medieval framework      Visions C.G. Jung,2022-05-29 For Jung the beautiful and brilliantly creative 28 year old Christiana Morgan was an inspired force whose path in self analysis paralleled his own quest for personal knowledge By teaching Morgan the trance like technique of active imagination Jung helped her embark on a series of archetypal adventures which she depicted in paintings of great virtuosity and he candidly recounted at a seminar given to some of his closest followers Through his eloquent description of the fiery mythic visions of a woman discovering her repressed sexuality and feminine power Jung reveals how deeply this encounter challenged his understanding of feminine psychology These two volumes bring together for the first time colour reproductions of Morgan's paintings with a complete transcript of the seminar Seeking the Centre Roslynn D. Haynes, 1998 The desert has a hypnotic presence in Australian culture simultaneously alluring and repellent The Centre is distant and unknown to most Australians yet has become a symbol of the country This exciting book highly illustrated in full colour reveals the singular impact that the desert both geographical and metaphorical has had on Australian culture At the heart of the book is the profound relationship that Aboriginal Australians have with the desert and the complex ways in which they have been seen by white people in this context The Sons of the Gods and the Daughters of Men Modupe Oduyoye, 2015-09-29 Modupe Oduyoye knows the rules of biblical criticism set down by the scholars of Europe and North America and he draws upon them to good effect Yet when he chooses to read the Hebrew Bible through the eyes of African creation myth and with the tongue of the Hamitic language group the effect is extraordinary Without attempting to solve the complex riddle of all that Jerusalem of old had to do with Ethiopia and East Africa Oduyoye persuasively shows that the exquisite sensitivity of African religion to the realm of the spirit is a living witness to a biblical consciousness much richer and more pluralistic than we had realized We ignore to our impoverishment and even our peril Oduyoye believes this biblical sense of human participation in the divine vitality and of spiritual kinship among the creatures W Sibley Towner Professor of Biblical Interpretation Union Theological Seminary Modupe Oduyoye presents a fascinating study in the area of biblical interpretation in drawing upon biblical and West African languages This is a work that ought to stimulate thought and make African theologians more receptive to the call to take a fresh look at the Bible against the background of African life and thought Kwesi A Dickson Professor of Old Testament Studies Director of the Institute of African Studies University of Ghana There is much in Modupe Oduyoye's book that is explosive of our Western biblical theological ethnocentricity This book is another heralding of the West African school which will have our skills but use them according to ground rules they are working out a school that will take its place with the Mexican the Tamil and many others As the tide recedes from the West it is good to hear the surge and thunder of the African shore Noel A King Professor of History and Comparative Religion University of California at Santa Cruz Modupe Oduyoye is a Nigerian exegete and philologist He was William Paton Fellow at the Selly Oak Colleges Birmingham 1981-82 He presently serves as the Literature Secretary of the Christian Council of Nigeria and as Manager of the Daystar Press in Ibadan
