Tap Dancing for the Relatives Richard Michelson, 1985 Lightered Van K. Brock, 2005 The way pine needles speak their sibilants to the green pecans Van K Brocks LIGHTERED speaks to me The books title refers to highly combustible sap rich pine and his poems suffused with a strong sense of public and private history Dixie haunted world struck sizzle and snap on the tongue and in the mind Brock knows how to brush just enough strangeness into our speech to make it song and to make it last Hes been to the sacred wood and brought back fire R T Smith Van K Brock is a poet to cherish and read for his sense wisdom and skill in bringing the secrets of our time to us without spoiling the mystery These lightered poems give brief strong light to family tragedies evidence of ancient too present crime And there are folktunes here much music in the words for dancing the washing screaming to be hung in the sun like saved sinners Michael Mott Scholarship love of nature and family the honoring through poetry of art music and travel indignant witnessing to historys evil absurdities these and many other passions assure the power of Brocks chromatics He hears even the shards of mosaics as songs that awaken epiphanies and theres grief in his poems that we are too often fragmentary man with some parts perhaps the most essential for our humanity unfinished Ive followed his work for years I value this up to date definitive collection David Ray The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1987 Monographic Series Library of Congress, Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Unspeakable Strangers Van K. Brock, 1995 Poetry These are very bold and powerful poems about of course practically the most difficult theme in the world I read them with increasing admiration for both the mastery of imagery and control Never once do they slip into the sentimental and that in itself is an achievement But mainly I am impressed by the pervasive music the requiem sound William Styron International Quarterly, 1997 South Atlantic Review, 1981 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-10 Subject Catalog, 1980 Library of Congress, 1980 The Extraordinary Tide Susan Aizenberg, Erin Belieu, Jeremy Countryman, 2001
Featuring four hundred poems by more than one hundred female authors this celebration of American women poets includes major work from the last third of the 20th century Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Japanese Culture Sandra Buckley,2009 This encyclopedia covers culture from the end of the Imperialist period in 1945 right up to date to reflect the vibrant nature of contemporary Japanese society and culture Representing Minorities Soumia Boutkhil,Larbi Touaf,2009-01-14 The papers in this volume include not only the traditional view of what constitutes a minority but also any individual or group recalcitrant and reluctant not to say resistant to the generalized lobotomy operated by the rampant uniformisation of cultures around the world For in the ruins of the end of history and its context of violence and Manichean politics any opposition to the general consensus could be dismissed as anti historical and atavistic The objective of the book is precisely to counter such rhetoric and underscore the necessity of cultural diversity and the right to difference This book contains what can amount to a critical response to the current context of confusion surrounding the postmodern condition that arguably dominates most societies It stresses the issue of ethics not only in world politics but also in literature and criticism which are the main focus here In fact the interest in minority issues is in itself an ethical concern that contributes to give substance to the idea that postmodernity opens the gates for the long suppressed identities and sensibilities to emerge and demand recognition This volume intends therefore to contribute to the recent ethical turn that seems to take place in scholarship worldwide Operated mainly by what is referred to as postcolonial studies this shift turned literary criticism and cultural studies into the site where a sense of literature can be envisioned that is not at all universalist or reflecting the hegemonic temptations of the new world order It seeks to present a patchwork of minor literatures in the sense that besides the major literatures languages there are myriads of minor voices that express dissimilarity oftentimes under the umbrella of those major languages and literatures themselves
