Why Does Literature Matter? Frank B. Farrell, 2018-07-05 Literature matters because it allows for experiences important to the living out of a sophisticated and satisfying human life because other arenas of culture cannot provide them to the same degree and because a relatively small number of texts carry out these functions in so exceptional a manner that we owe it to past and future members of the species to keep such texts alive in our cultural traditions from Chapter One Frank B Farrell defends a rich conception of the space of literature that retains its links to issues of self formation and metaphysics and does not let that space collapse into just another reflection of social space He maintains that recent literary theory has badly misread findings in the philosophy of language and the theory of subjectivity That misreading Farrell says has tended to endorse ways of understanding literature that make one question why it matters at all Farrell here opposes some recent theoretical trends and through a mix of philosophical and literary studies tells us why in his view literature does truly matter Among the writers Farrell discusses are John Ashbery Samuel Beckett Amit Chaudhuri Cormac McCarthy James Merrill Marcel Proust Thomas Pynchon Salman Rushdie W G Sebald and John Updike The philosophers important to his arguments include Donald Davidson Daniel Dennett and Bernard Williams G W F Hegel Martin Heidegger Friedrich Nietzsche and Ludwig Wittgenstein play roles as well Among the literary theorists addressed are Stephen Greenblatt Paul de Man and Marjorie Perloff In addition to his close readings of literary philosophical and critical texts Farrell considers cultural studies and postcolonial studies more generally and speculates on the possible contributions of object relations theory in psychology to the study of literature

Hidden Mutualities Michael Mitchell, 2006 Hidden mutualities link the work of major postcolonial writers with Christopher Marlowe's drama of the Faustian pact the manipulation of the material world in exchange for the soul written as the scientific world view was emerging which accompanied the imperial expansion of Europe and has determined the economic and social structures of the colonial and postcolonial world This fascinating study brings together researches in widely different fields to show how Doctor Faustus reflects a Gnostic Hermetic tradition marginalized within the dominant European power structures Rediscovered in the Renaissance and combined with occult arts such as alchemy and magic this living tradition informs the work of Magus figures such as Pico della Mirandola Marcilio Ficino Trithemius Johannes Reuchlin Agrippa of Nettesheim Paracelsus and John Dee who are reflected in the Faust tradition and in Prospero in Shakespeare's The Tempest The second part investigates the dual legacy of the Magus A counterpoint between a law governed objective material world and an occult visionary pursuit of the divine potential of the human imagination is traced through the examples of Johan Kepler Robert Fludd Isaac Newton William Blake Rudyard Kipling Aleister Crowley W B Yeats Wolfgang Pauli and C G Jung In the third part textual analysis reveals how attention to these Faustian themes opens new and exciting critical perspectives in appreciating the works of postcolonial writers in particular Dimetos by Athol Fugard Disappearance by David Dabydeen Omeros by Derek Walcott and the novels of Wilson Harris contemporary writing Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty-First-Century Irish Novel Kathleen Costello-Sullivan, 2018-05-07 The desire to engage and confront traumatic subjects was a facet of Irish literature for much of the twentieth century Yet just as Irish society has adopted a more direct and open approach to the past so too have Irish authors evolved in their response to and literary uses of trauma In Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty First Century Irish Novel Costello Sullivan considers the ways in which the Irish canon not only represents an ongoing awareness of trauma as a literary and cultural force but also how this representation has shifted since the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century While earlier trauma narratives center predominantly on the role of silence and the individual and or societal suffering that traumas induce twenty first century Irish narratives increasingly turn from just the recognition of traumatic experiences toward exploring and representing the process of healing and recovery both structurally and narratively Through a series of keenly observed close readings Costello Sullivan explores the work of Colm T ib n John Banville Anne Enright Emma Donohue Colum McCann and Sebastian Barry In highlighting the power of narrative to amend and address memory and trauma Costello Sullivan argues that these works reflect a movement beyond merely representing trauma toward also representing the possibility of recovery from it
