MacDowell, 2013-07-22 Hollywood happy ending has long been considered among the most famous and standardised features in the whole of narrative filmmaking Yet while ceaselessly invoked this notorious device has received barely any detailed attention from the field of film studies This book is thus the first in depth examination of one of the most overused and under analysed concepts in discussions of popular cinema What exactly is the happy ending Is it simply a cliché as commonly supposed Why has it earned such an unenviable reputation What does it or can it mean Concentrating especially on conclusions featuring an ultimate romantic union the final couple this wide ranging investigation probes traditional associations between the happy ending and homogeneity closure unrealism and ideological conservatism testing widespread assumptions against the evidence offered by a range of classical and contemporary films The Happy Ending Diaries

The End Richard John Neupert, 1995

Given the importance that spectators grant to the final moments of a motion picture it is surprising to find so little written on how films end and how audiences interpret those closing moments This study investigates endings in film and the lively role they play in how and why viewers make sense of movies Relying upon contemporary literary criticism and film theory the author analyses narrative strategies in films ranging from the classical Hollywood motion picture to the more modern European art cinema To assist readers in understanding the various functions of endings the films are divided into four critical categories the Closed Text film typical of classical works the Open Story films the Open Discourse film and the Open Text film which struggles to defy story resolution Detailed textual analysis of sample films reveal how all of the devices of filmic narration from mise en scene to soundtracks direct a viewer s perception comprehension and interpretation of closure in films Among the sample films that are featured as test cases for studying endings are The Quiet Man Ford 1950 The 400 Blows Truffaut 1959 Weekend Godard 1967 Tout va bien Godard 1972 and Earth Dovzhenko 1930 To round out his informative study of endings in films Neupert also examines a host of diverse titles including Do the Right Thing Lee 1989 Open City Rossellini 1945 and The Graduate Nichols 1967

The importance of being a reader: A revision of Oscar Wilde's works Christina Pascual Aransáez,2014-11 This book explores Wilde's works from the hypothesis that they call upon the active participation of the reader in the production of meaning It has a twofold objective first it shows that Wilde's emphasis on the creative role of the audience in his critical writings makes him conceive the reader as a co creator in the construction of meaning Second it analyses the strategies which Wilde employs to impel the reader to collaborate in the creation of meaning of his literary works and casts light upon the social criticism derived from these The examination of Wilde's writings reveals how he gradually combined more sophisticated techniques that encouraged the reader's dynamic role with the progressive exploitation of self advertising strategies for professional purposes These allowed the commercial Oscar to make his works successful among the Victorian public without betraying the literary Wilde's aesthetic principles The present study re evaluates Wilde as a critic and as a writer It demonstrates that while Wilde the myth was ahead of his time in many ways Wilde the ARTIST anticipated in his aesthetic theory various themes which occupy contemporary literary theoreticians Thus it may contribute to give him the status he rightly deserves in the history of literature
