Conditions Douwe Beijaard,Pauline C. Meijer,Greta Morine-Dersheimer,Tillema Harm,2005-12-12 This book presents some highlights from the deliberations of the 2003 conference of the International Study Association on Teachers and Teaching ISATT Part 1 presents the five keynote addresses of the conference while Parts 2 through 4 present selected papers related to each of three sub themes knowledge construction and learning to teach perspectives on teachers personal and professional lives and teachers workplace as context for learning The chapters in this book provide an array of approaches to understanding the process of teacher learning within the current context of the changing workplace environment They also provide an important international perspective on the complex issues revolving around the international educational reform movement Basically they show how teachers workplace inside and outside schools are more than ever subject to continuous change and that subsequently standards for teaching must be flexible to these changing conditions This asks for a redefinition of teacher professionalism in which the role of context in teacher learning is emphasized as well as the improvement of the quality of teacher thinking and learning Related to the ever changing context of teaching a dynamic approach to teaching and teacher learning is required in which identity development is crucial Researchers have an important role to play in revealing and explaining how teachers can build their professional identity through self awareness and reflection in the ever changing educational contexts throughout the world

Native and Non-Native Teachers in English Language Classrooms Juan de Dios Martinez Agudo,2017-05-08

Despite being highly debated in applied linguistics and L2 teaching literature the controversial issue of non nativeness still remains unresolved Contemporary critical research has questioned the theoretical foundations of the nativeness paradigm which still exerts a strong influence in the language teaching profession Written by well known researchers and teacher educators from all over the world both NSs and NNSs the selected contributions of this volume cover a great variety of aspects related to the professional role and status of both NS and NNS teachers in terms of both perceived differences and professional concerns and challenges The strongest aspects of this volume are the global perspectives and the implications for future research and teacher education It is precisely this international perspective which makes this volume illustrative of different realities with a similar objective in mind the improvement of second language teaching and teacher education In today s world being a NS or NNS should not really matter but rather teachers professional competences This publication thus provides a forum of reflection and discussion for all L2 educators who need to be aware of how much they might offer to their future students

Dubey, Dhananjay Kumar, 2024-01-01 Human behaviour refers to the wide range of behaviours exhibited by human beings and is determined by sociocultural context attributes emotions values ethics or genetic factors Individual understanding necessitates knowledge of the cultural environment in which the behaviour occurs These volumes on Human Behaviour in Sociocultural Context endeavours to address a variety of pertinent themes from a sociocultural perspective The study of how a person's culture and society influence their behaviour beliefs and feelings is known as sociocultural psychology Sociocultural theory is a relatively new idea in psychology Its goal is to figure out what function society plays in promoting personal development This method also emphasizes that people learn the majority of what they know through social interactions These two edited volumes are divided broadly into seven distinct sections Section 1 of the volume navigates Conceptual and Methodological Issues Section 2 focuses on Cognitive Affective Aspects of Behaviour Whereas Section 3 of the volume is devoted to Socio Developmental Issues and Section 4 reports about Health and Well being Moreover Section 5 talks about Behaviour in Intercultural Context and Section 6 discusses about Social Cognition and Intergroup Relations Lastly Section 7 reflects on Human Behaviour in Organizations These volumes promise to give readers a holistic understanding of integrated research and practice International Perspectives on Teaching English in Difficult

Circumstances Kuchah Kuchah, Fauzia Shamim, 2018-11-17 This book offers a holistic practitioner and research based perspective on English Language Teaching and teacher education in difficult circumstances In addition to extending the current conceptualization of difficult circumstances in ELT to include the broader policy issues that may affect ELT in low to mid income countries the book focuses on the challenges faced by practitioners and learners in contexts of confinement conflict and special education The chapters in this collection examine the challenges and problems that emerge from the complex current ELT environment and present examples of contextualized inquiry based strategies and interventions to address these challenges Underlining the need to extend the boundaries of the discipline of ELT to include teaching learning in less privileged contexts this wide ranging volume will appeal to students scholars and practitioners of English Language Teaching Language Teacher Development in Digital Contexts Hayriye Kayi-Aydar, Jonathon Reinhardt, 2022-01-15 This volume demonstrates how various methodologies and tools have been used to analyze the multidimensional dynamic and complex nature of identities and professional development of language teachers in digital contexts that have not been adequately examined before. It therefore offers new understandings and conceptualizations of language teacher development and learning in varied digital environments. The collection of pieces illustrates a field that is recognizing that digital environments are the contexts of teacher learning, not simply the object of it, and that issues of identity and agency are central to that learning. As an excellent resource on digital technologies, CALL, gaming, or language teacher identity and agency, the book can be used as a textbook in various applied linguistics courses and graduate seminars. Next Steps in Managing Teacher Migration Jonathan Penson, Akemi Yonemura, 2012. This collection of papers from the Sixth Commonwealth Teachers Research Symposium examines current trends in teacher migration, including education in emergencies, forced migration, and pan-African migration, in line with the current global focus on education in conflict-affected countries. Self-Efficacy in Instructional Technology Contexts Charles B. Hodges, 2018-10-24. This edited volume contains reports of current research and literature reviews of research involving self-efficacy in various instructional technology contexts. The chapters represent international perspectives across the broad areas of K-12 education, higher education, teacher self-efficacy, and learner self-efficacy, to capture a diverse cross-section of research on these topics. The book includes reviews of existing literature and reports of new research, thus creating a comprehensive resource for researchers and designers interested in this general topic. The book is especially relevant to students and researchers in educational technology, instructional technology, instructional design, learning sciences, and educational psychology.

Second Language Writing Instruction in Global Contexts Lisy Seloni, Sarah Henderson Lee, 2019-10-11. This book revisits second language (L2) writing teacher education by exploring the complex layers of L2 writing instruction in non-English dominant contexts, i.e. English as a foreign language contexts. It pushes the boundaries of teacher education by specifically examining the development of teacher literacy in writing in under-represented L2 writing contexts and re-envisioning L2 writing teacher education that is contextually and culturally situated, moving away from the uncritical embrace of Western-based writing pedagogies. It explores and expands on writing teacher education, how language teachers come to understand their own writing practices and instruction, and what their related experiences are in non-English dominant contexts across the globe.
