Six Masters Of Early Qing And Wu Li:

Chinese Art and Dynastic Time Wu Hung, 2022-05-03 A sweeping look at Chinese art across the millennia that upends traditional perspectives and offers new pathways for art history Throughout Chinese history dynastic time the organization of history through the lens of successive dynasties has been the dominant mode of narrating the story of Chinese art even though there has been little examination of this concept in discourse and practice until now Chinese Art and Dynastic Time uncovers how the development of Chinese art was described in its original cultural sociopolitical and artistic contexts and how these narratives were interwoven with contemporaneous artistic creation In doing so leading art historian Wu Hung opens up new pathways for the consideration of not only Chinese art but also the whole of art history Wu Hung brings together ten case studies ranging from the third millennium BCE to the early twentieth century CE and spanning ritual and religious art painting sculpture the built environment and popular art in order to examine the deep rooted patterns in the historical conceptualization of Chinese art Elucidating the changing notions of dynastic time in various contexts he also challenges the preoccupation with this concept as the default mode in art historical writing This critical investigation of dynastic time thus constitutes an essential foundation to pursue new narrative and interpretative frameworks in thinking about art history Remarkable for the sweep and scope of its arguments and lucid style Chinese Art and Dynastic Time probes the roots of the collective imagination in Chinese art and frees us from long held perspectives on how this art should be understood Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC

China and Maritime Europe, 1500-1800 John E. Wills, Jr, 2010-12-31 China and Maritime Europe 1500 1800 looks at early modern China in some of its most complicated and intriguing relations with a world of increasing global interconnection New World silver Chinese tea Jesuit astronomers at the Chinese court and merchants and marauders of all kinds play important roles here Although pieces of these stories have been told before these chapters provide the fullest and clearest available summaries based on sources in Chinese and in European languages making this information accessible to students and scholars interested in the growing connections among continents and civilizations in the early modern period

François de Rougemont, S.J., Missionary in Ch'ang-Shu (Chiang-Nan) Noël Golvers, François de Rougemont, 1999 This book reconstructs the life of a Jesuit missionary in a small inland residence in China Ch ang shu Chiang nan Province primarily but not exclusively on the basis of the evidence of a newly re discovered private Account Book covering the period from October 1674 to April May 1676 This pocket note book mainly represents the missionary s private expenses and to a much lesser extent the revenues he received As such it is an exceptional document in the missionary documentation Absolutely unique is the part concerning his personal spiritual exercises his successes as well as failings in that field After a lengthy introduction in which both the life of the author and the complex composition of the Account Book are reconstructed the text is presented in a bilingual Latin English edition In seven chapters the contents are further described and analysed from various angles the general topographical setting the author's ten journeys through the region in 1674-1676 the social contacts referred to the various aspects of priestly and pastoral life the means of propagation written as well as pictorial the material culture of the mission the financial structure of the whole undertaking including the patterns of expenditure revealed All the evidence available in this Account Book is combined with other contemporary information mainly from unpublished sources including a large number of quotations from the lost Couplet Rougemont correspondence that has survived in Estrix's Elogium F de Rougemont 1690 the text of which is also published here for the first time Thus the Account Book assumes its place as an exceptional private document with a major relevance for the reconstruction of missionary life in China

A Story of Ruins Wu Hung, 2013-02-15 This richly illustrated book examines the changing significance of ruins as vehicles for cultural memory in Chinese art and visual culture from ancient times to the present The story of ruins in China is different from but connected to ruin culture in the West This book explores indigenous Chinese concepts of ruins and their visual manifestations as well as the complex historical interactions between China and the West since the eighteenth century Wu Hung leads us through an array of traditional and contemporary visual materials including painting architecture photography prints and cinema A Story of Ruins shows how ruins are integral to traditional Chinese culture in both architecture and pictorial forms It traces the changes in their representation over time from indigenous methods of recording damage and decay in ancient China to realistic images of architectural ruins in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the strong interest in urban ruins in contemporary China as shown in the many artworks that depict demolished houses and decaying industrial sites The result is an original interpretation of the development of Chinese art as well as a unique contribution to global art history

Wu Li (1632-1718) Xiaoping Lin, 2001 By constructing this work in biographical sequence focusing in particular on Wu Li's intellectual development and how it affected his artistic creation and by examining selected pieces in both philosophical and pictorial terms Xiaoping Lin has created a comprehensive study of Wu Li's life and art
