Renaissance and Baroque Bronzes from the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge Victoria Avery, Jo Dillon, Fitzwilliam Museum, 2002 In the introductory essay to the catalogue of bronzes from the Fitzwilliam Museum Dr Avery provides the first detailed account of Boscawen himself of the loans and gifts he made to the Museum during his lifetime and his sister's extraordinarily generous bequest Foreword

Sculpture Collections in Europe and the United States 1500-1930, 2021-04-26 Exploring the variety of forms taken by collections of sculpture this volume presents new research by twelve internationally recognized scholars The essays delve into the motivations of different collectors the modes of display and the aesthetics of viewing sculpture bringing to light much new archival material The book underscores the ambiguous nature of sculpture collections variously understood as decorative components of interiors or gardens as objects of desire in cabinets of curiosity or as autonomous works of art in private and public collections Emphasizing the collections and the ways in which these were viewed and described this book addresses a significant but neglected aspect of art collecting and contributes to the literature on this branch of art and cultural history This book evolved from a symposium Sculpture Collecting and Display 1600-2000 organized by the Center for the History of Collecting that was held at The Frick Collection on May 19 and 20 2017 Both the book and the symposium were made possible through the generous support of the Robert H Smith Family Foundation The book is published in association with The Frick Collection

A History of the Western Art Market Titia Hulst, 2023-04-28 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling evidence of art's inherent commercial dimension and show how artists dealers and collectors have interacted over time from the city states of Quattrocento Italy to the high stakes markets of postmillennial New York and Beijing This approach casts a startling new light on the traditional concerns of art history and aesthetics revealing much that is provocative profound and occasionally even comic This volume's unique historical perspective makes it appropriate for use in college courses and postgraduate and professional programs as well as for professionals working in art related environments such as museums galleries and auction houses This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 2017 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling
