John Gregory Bourke, 1884      Snake Dancer Vicki Blair, 2019-03-23 At first glance Leslie Les Lewis looks like any other seventeen year old high school senior in Kentucky but she is not she is different Part of the difference stems from her holiness upbringing and the twenty plus venomous snakes living in her basement however her religion and the snakes are not what differentiate her the most That would be her secret sin Four years ago something happened to Les that changed her from being an outgoing carefree dress wearing thirteen year old to being the guarded mature jeans wearing tomboy she is today Tormented day and night by this secret she lives in fear of her sin being exposed So far she has been successful in keeping everything under wraps until she meets and falls for the new good looking young gym teacher Coach Zuzeca Z Coach Z is a member of the Lakota Sioux Indian tribe and has his own secrets When Les and Z get together in this forbidden romance their cultures religions and secrets collide The outcome is a slithering mess      Dancing Gods Erna Fergusson, 1988-04-01

It addresses common folktales about snakes, do snakes milk cows, and describes giant snakes, both real and imaginary. The authors also give expert advice on such subjects as distinguishing venomous species from harmless look-alikes and keeping snakes as pets. The Mishongnovi Ceremonies of the Snake and Antelope Fraternities George Amos Dorsey, Henry R. Voth, 1902. Extra Census Bulletin, 1893. The Oraibi Powamu Ceremony Henry R. Voth, 1901. Haunting Bollywood Meheli Sen, 2017-03-01. Haunting Bollywood is a pioneering interdisciplinary inquiry into the supernatural in Hindi cinema that draws from literary criticism, postcolonial studies, queer theory, history, and cultural studies. Hindi commercial cinema has been invested in the supernatural since its earliest days, but only a small segment of these films have been adequately explored in scholarly work. This book addresses this gap by focusing on some of Hindi cinema's least explored genres. From Gothic ghost films of the 1950s to snake films of the 1970s and 1980s to today's globally influenced zombie and vampire films, Meheli Sen delves into what the supernatural is and the varied modalities through which it raises questions of film form, history, modernity, and gender in South Asian public cultures. Arguing that the supernatural is dispersed among multiple genres and constantly in conversation with global cinematic forms, she demonstrates that it is an especially malleable impulse that routinely pushes Hindi film into new formal and stylistic territories. Sen also argues that gender is a particularly accommodating stage on which the supernatural rehearses its most basic compulsions; thus, the interface between gender and genre provides an exceptionally productive lens.

into Hindi cinema's negotiation of the modern and the global. Haunting Bollywood reveals that the supernatural's unruly energies continually resist containment even as they partake of and sometimes subvert Hindi cinema's most enduring pleasures from songs and stars to myth and melodrama.
