Patrick Lewis, 2012 A collection of 200 poems about animals      Religious Experience in Modern Poetry Ewa Panecka, 2019-10-17 This study on religious experience in modern poetry features innovatory and accessible close readings of some of the most beloved authors of English verse In today's seemingly secular age religion still remains a highly contested subject The selection of texts analysed here is representative of a wide spectrum of attitudes including a sharply critical refusal to acknowledge Christianity as the basis of civilization Some poets see national religion as a framework for cultural identity while others worship nature as the omnipotent Force of Life trying to create their own gods Rather than reducing poetry to a background for philosophical analysis or theological deliberation this book presents diverse modes of the poetic endeavor to capture and convey the divine The chapters provide a range of perspectives on individual experience rendered into poetry as a subtle relationship between faith perception and language The text will be of interest to anyone looking for new ways of reading poetry as a spiritual quest      Reading Ted Hughes: New Selected Poems Neil Roberts, 2016-10-09 A brilliant new study of one of the great English poets of the 20th Century by a distinguished critic and scholar This book opens with a section on Hughes's life including the relationship with Sylvia Plath and the effect of her suicide on his poetry and reputation followed by a review of Hughes's artistic strategies his poetic language and influences on his work including the poets of Eastern Europe The body of the book offers an approach to reading New Selected Poems 1995 taking in turn each of the remarkable and remarkably varied works from which the poems were selected The Hawk in the Rain Lupercal Wodwo Crow Cave Birds Season Songs Gaudete Remains of Elmet Moortown Diary River and Wolfwatching It concludes with a review of Hughes's reception and a six page bibliography Professor Roberts's books include Ted Hughes A Critical Study with Terry Gifford Faber 1981 D H
