 less I should be better able to thank you If I could have listened as you have listened to the glowing language of your distinguished Chairman and if I could have heard as you heard the thoughts that breathe and words that burn which he has uttered it would have gone hard but I should have caught some portion of his enthusiasm and kindled at his example But every word which fell from his lips and every demonstration of sympathy and approbation with which you received his eloquent expressions renders me unable to respond to his kindness and leaves me at last all heart and no lips yearning to respond as I would do to your cordial greeting possessing heaven knows the will and desiring only to find the way The Athenaeum ,1870 Charles Dickens and Georgina Hogarth Christine Skelton,2023-04-18 Charles Dickens called his sister in law Georgina Hogarth his best and truest friend Georgina saw Dickens as much more than a friend They lived together for twenty eight years during which time their relationship constantly changed The sister of his wife Catherine the sharp and witty Georgina moved into the Dickens home aged fifteen What began as a father daughter relationship blossomed into a genuine rapport but their easy relations were fractured when Dickens had a mid life crisis and determined to rid himself of Catherine Georgina s refusal to leave Dickens and his desire for her to remain in his household led to rumours of an affair and even illegitimate children He left her the equivalent of almost 1 million and all his personal papers in his will Georgina s commitment to Dickens was unwavering but it is far from clear what he did to deserve such loyalty There were several occasions when he misused her in order to protect his public reputation Why did Georgina betray her once much loved sister Why did she fall out with her family and risk her reputation in order to stay with Dickens And why did the Dickens daughter Katey say it was the greatest mistake ever to invite a sister in law to live with a family
