A Fluid Sense of Self Silvia Schultersmandl, Sebem Toplu, 2010 In this era of increasing global mobility identities are too complex to be captured by concepts that rely on national borders for reference Such identities are not unified or stable but are fluid entities which constantly push at the boundaries of the nation state thereby re defining themselves and the nation state simultaneously Contemporary literature pays specific attention to internal and external notions of belonging Politics of Motion and definitions of self resulting from interpersonal relationships Politics of Longing This collection looks at texts by authors who are British American or Canadian but for whom a self definition according national parameters is insufficient

Zadie Smith's The Autograph Man Greeshma Peethambaran, 2013 Pegged on the concept of otherness Bakhtin's principle of dialogue highlights the differential relation between a center and all that is not the center Bakhtinian thought centers on the dialogue between the self and the other Bakhtin argues that any notion acquires meaning only in dialogue with another notion However the self in Bakhtin's notion is not a self sufficient construct by itself The self gains meaning existence only in its relation with the other Zadie Smith's The Autograph Man A Dialogic Perspective attempts to probe into the novel under study as a dialogic narrative viewing it as a dialogue between the self and the other which constitutes the Jewish and the Goyish voices in the novel Besides the novel also proves itself as a dialogue between the Author Hero and the Reader

Zadie Smith Tracey Walters, 2013-08-01 Zadie Smith made a huge splash in 1997 when as a college student she received one of the largest advances in British history for her novel White Teeth Since then Smith has published four major novels a volume of essays and many short stories She has become a college professor an award winner and an influential critic of both literature and the current political scene Readers of Zadie Smith will learn about how insecure and outside of society she felt as a child and young woman and how that very sense of being an outsider transformed her into the writer of clarity she is today

Aesthetics and Ethics in Twenty-First Century British Novels Peter Childs, James Green, 2013-08-15 A fresh set of concerns face the twenty first century British novelist In this study of the four key novelists Zadie Smith Nadeem Aslam Hari Kunzru and David Mitchell the the changes in narrative approaches and critical directions of a new post 1989 fiction are explored Close readings of the writers are informed by a range of contemporary theorists critics and commentators to reveal the emphases of twenty first century fiction Terror fear consumerism multinationalism and corporatism the terms circulating in culture and social networks are evident in Smith's faith in ethical living Aslam's consideration of multiculturalism the novels Kunzru builds around the politics of identity and in the importance Mitchell places on the interconnectedness of human life By putting the emergence of a new British literary dynamic in the context of ethical as well as global contexts this study analyzes the transformed fictional perceptions of a
