Haunted Kansas Lisa Hefner Heitz,1997-10-31 Who s that Is someone there A whisper of air brushes your cheek Then all is still Maybe it was just the wind Or maybe it wasn t Maybe you ve just been visited by the late Ida Day lurking in the basement of Hutchinson s public library or the widow Tarot staring forlornly from an upstairs window at Fort Scott or the phantom Earl floating behind the scenes in Concordia s Brown Grand Theater And maybe the horrific Albino Woman truly does haunt Topeka turning romantic nights into nightmares maybe Pursuing the stories behind these and other spectral manifestations Lisa Hefner Heitz has traveled the state in search of its ghostly folklore What she has unearthed is a fascinating blend of oral histories contemporary eye witness accounts and local legends Creepy and chilling sometimes humorous and always engaging her book features tales about ghosts poltergeists spook lights and a host of other restless spirits that haunt Kansas Heitz s spine tingling collection of stories raps and taps and moans and groans through a wealth of descriptions of infamous Kansas phantoms as well as disconcerting personal experiences related by former skeptics Many of these ghosts she shows are notoriously linked to specific structures or locations whether it is an eighteenth century mansion in Atchison or a deep some have claimed bottomless pool near Ashland The evanescent apparitions of these tales have frightened and at times amused Kansans throughout the state s long history Yet this is the first book to capture for posterity the lively antics of the state s ghostly denizens Besides preserving a colorful and imaginative if intangible side of the state s popular heritage Heitz supplies ghost storytellers with ample hair raising material for well eternity Maybe that person breathing softly behind you has another such story to share Oh no one s there Perhaps it really was just the breeze off the prairie

The Fringe Renee Mink Crosby,2017-10-07 One woman comes to break the silence and mystery of a secret society which she joined at age 23 The Fringe Her life in The Fringe was unexpectedly one of being judged caged into a stereotype and shamefully condemned Once an opera singer her life seemed to spiral into an inescapable pit Her stories will surprise and intrigue you as she introduces you to people she met I cannot continue to live with the shame judgment and persecution from my life in The Fringe I am tired of carrying the burden of our invisible existence among you I will not hide our secrets and refuse to be silent any longer It is time you knew our stories and the truth of who we really are It is time to give a voice to those of us in The Fringe In the end as she educates us about their plight she hopes to build a bridge between the ignorance of society with compassion and an awareness for who we are The Fringe

The Outcasters Maestro Drake, 2011-11-28 Since 1995 I set out as an artist to create characters who were hideous strange and did not fit within the normal boundaries of a modern society The Circus Freaks my 1st creations are such examples of de humanizing humans placing them in a world where they are not accepted by the majority and must push their way uphill to gain power After 15 years of creating many people places and things based on the real world publishing books including this one I came to an epiphany Who you are in relation to someone else depends not on skin color age religion sexual preference language biology country or planet These short stories contain individual lives of those you are familiar with in one social category or another as opposed to those of your neighbor family member significant partner your enemies and those unlikely youve never met In the end a world a galaxy of prosperity comes with the efforts of all who are related because they are unrelated and thats exactly what this book is about Maestro Drake
