Levie, 2023-12-11 Reframing Trauma in Contemporary Fiction Film Tarja Laine, 2023-07-31 In Reframing Trauma in Contemporary Fiction Film Tarja Laine provides insights into how cinema engages its spectator emotionally with the pathology of memory that lies at the heart of trauma By arguing that cinema communicates the inability to process a traumatic event by means of its aesthetic specificity Laine demonstrates that traumatic cinema can be an important source of ethical knowledge both within and beyond the cinematic world The films discussed in this book do not necessarily narrate trauma but embody that aspect of trauma which resists narrativization This is why there are modes of affective engagement beyond storytelling by which spectators can meaningfully relate to trauma Scholars of film studies media studies and philosophy will find this book of particular interest A Tale Told by an Idiot Richard Taylor, 2013-02-28 This is a story about one man s struggle to overcome class discrimination poverty and abandonment in order to achieve success wholeness and recognition It does not always make light reading but as with anything in life there are humorous elements A mixture of narrative storytelling and academic investigation provides the necessary balance for discussing a difficult subject From earliest childhood memories the reader is taken through the commotion of school life and ultimately beyond into the world of work There is a gradual reversal of roles as the ideas applied to the writer in his youth are turned outwards upon his entourage and subsequently the rest of society One need not always agree but hopefully the book will provide at the very least food for thought and demonstrate the limitations of any idea when taken to the extreme
