Unexpected circumstances led him to Basutoland present day Lesotho where he struck up an unfailing friendship based on mutual trust and esteem with the Sotho King Moshoeshoe In addition to his missionary task Casalis transcribed the language and contributed largely to the economic development of the country while concurrently supporting the King in his efforts to convince the British to help him fight Boer expansionism He gave invaluable diplomatic aid and advice to the King during the 23 years he spent in the country Back in France in 1855 he became the director of the House of Missions where he trained a number of young men to become missionaries His eldest son became a missionary to Lesotho and his eldest daughter married a missionary with whom she returned to Lesotho where she brought up a large family All this has contributed to making the name of Casalis well known in the Kingdom to this day To a certain extent Lesotho's accession to independence in 1966 can be perceived as a distant result of Casalis's work The present King Letsie III is a direct descendant of King Moshoeshoe

In 2 Cor 10 13 as in the entire Pauline corpus the use of the first person plural is surprising Paul oscillates between singular I and plural We sometimes within the same sentence While this literary feature has never been seriously explored this study undertakes in the first part an investigation of the meanings of we in ancient Greek texts through several literary genres from Homer to the Hellenistic period The second part devoted to 2 Cor 10 13 shows the neat architecture of these chapters and the way the key theological message about weakness and power is delivered Also the occurrences of We and I throughout the text reveal a further underlying theology of authority

En 2 Co 10 13 mais aussi dans l'ensemble du corpus paulinien l'utilisation de la première personne du pluriel est surprenante Paul passe souvent du je au nous et inversement parfois dans la même phrase Ce trait littéraire n'ayant pas encore été examiné de manière approfondie la présente étude commence par une enquête sur les sens du nous dans plusieurs genres littéraires dont le genre pistolaire d'Homère jusqu'à l'époque hellénistique La seconde partie consacrée à 2 Co 10 13 montre l'architecture soignée de ces chapitres ainsi que la manière dont Paul communique le message théologique sur la faiblesse et la force L'alternance des nous et des je exprime en outre une véritable théologie de l'autorité apostolique
