The Outside Thing Hannah Roche,2019-05-28 In a lecture delivered before the University of Oxford s Anglo French Society in 1936 Gertrude Stein described romance as the outside thing that is always a thing to be felt inside Hannah Roche takes Stein s definition as a principle for the reinterpretation of three major modernist lesbian writers showing how literary and affective romance played a crucial yet overlooked role in the works of Stein Radclyffe Hall and Djuna Barnes The Outside Thing offers original readings of both canonical and peripheral texts including Stein s first novel Q E D Things As They Are Hall s Adam s Breed and The Well of Loneliness and Barnes s early writing alongside Nightwood Is there an inside space for lesbian writing or must it always seek refuge elsewhere Crossing established lines of demarcation between the in and the out the real and the romantic and the Victorian and the modernist The Outside Thing presents romance as a heterosexual plot upon which lesbian writers willfully set up camp These writers boldly adopted and adapted the romance genre Roche argues as a means of staking a queer claim on a heteronormative institution Refusing to submit or surrender to the straight traditions of the romance plot they turned the rules to their advantage Drawing upon extensive archival research The Outside Thing is a significant rethinking of the interconnections between queer writing lesbian living and literary modernism

Created in the Image? Or Rogovin,2024-08-15 The turn of the twenty first century saw the rise of a brand of fiction that centres the experience and perspective of the perpetrator thereby humanizing this character and granting it the capability to evoke our empathy The vast scholarship published on this phenomenon however fails to consider Israeli writing and with it some of the most complex characterizations of Holocaust perpetrators imagined from the unparalleled position of a nation that was shaped from its very birth by the legacy of Holocaust victimhood and survival In Created in the Image Or Rogovin situates Israeli literary responses to the Holocaust in the canon of perpetrator fiction for the first time Since the state s establishment in 1948 perpetrator characterization in Israeli fiction has demonstrated a remarkable development that corresponds to changing circumstances from the Eichmann trial to the First Intifada While early examples depicted perpetrators stereotypically and minimally as seen in Ka Tzetnik s demonic and bestial Nazis in Salamandra and in the amorphous persecutor figures in Aharon Appelfeld s stories since the mid 1980s these characters have been created in the human image as nuanced and multidimensional individuals The turning point came with Herr Neigel the sensitive and self contradictory commandant in David Grossman s See Under Love 1986 followed by likewise multifaceted and humanized perpetrators in fiction by A B Yehoshua Savyon Liebrecht and Amir Gutfreund Anchored in theoretical and comparative perspectives Created in the Image presents a groundbreaking analysis of the poetic mechanisms moral implications and historical contexts of this paradigm shift in the Israeli literary response to the Shoah

Freaks in Late Modernist American Culture Nancy Bombaci, 2006 Freaks in Late Modernist American Culture explores the emergence of what Nancy Bombaci terms late modernist freakish aesthetics a creative fusion of high and low themes and forms in relation to distorted bodies Literary and cinematic texts about freaks by Nathanael West Djuna Barnes Tod Browning and Carson McCullers subvert and reinvent modern progress narratives in order to challenge high modernist literary and social ideologies These works are marked by an acceptance of the disteleology anarchy and degeneration that racist discourses of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries associated with racial and ethnic outsiders particularly Jews In a period of American culture beset with increasing pressures for social and political conformity and with the threat of fascism from Europe these late modernist narratives about freaks defy oppressive norms and values as they search for an anarchic and transformational creativity

Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian boheme these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin s constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin s city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the un making of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm s book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history

Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men s efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War Paper Air, 1982 Silence and Power Mary Lynn Broe, 1991 Seventeen essayists study this enigmatic author's works not in the traditional style in which they were first reviewed but rather through a range of contemporary interpretations that resituate Barnes in the context of literary theory and feminist revisions of modernism Paper edition unseen 13 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Comics and Modernism Jonathan Najarian, 2024-01-18 Contributions by David M Ball Scott Bukatman Hillary Chute Jean Lee Cole Louise Kane Matthew Levay Andrei Molotiu Jonathan Najarian Katherine Roeder Noa Saunders Cl mence Sfadj Nick Sturm Glenn Willmott and Daniel Worden Since the early 1990s cartoonist Art Spiegelman has made the case that comics are the natural inheritor of the aesthetic tradition associated with the modernist movement of the early twentieth century In recent years scholars have begun to place greater import on the shared historical circumstances of early comics and literary and artistic modernism Comics and Modernism History Form and Culture is an interdisciplinary consideration of myriad social cultural and aesthetic connections Filling a gap in current scholarship an impressively diverse group of scholars approaches the topic from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds and methodologies Drawing on work in literary studies art history film studies philosophy and material culture studies contributors attend to the dynamic relationship between avant garde art literature and comics Essays by both established and emerging voices examine topics as divergent as early twentieth century film museum exhibitions newspaper journalism magazine illustration and transnational literary circulation In presenting varied critical approaches this book highlights important interpretive questions for the field Contributors sometimes arrive at thoughtful consensus and at other times settle on productive disagreements Ultimately this collection aims to extend traditional lines of inquiry in both comics studies and modernist studies and to reveal overlaps between ostensibly disparate artistic practices and movements
