The Landscape of Faith Alister McGrath, 2018-02-15 At Oxford University in the 1970s Alister McGrath faced a crisis when he realized that his scientific atheism made less sense of reality than the big picture offered by Christianity A reluctant convert he was astonished by the delight he found in exploring a previously unknown world of ideas Crucial to his understanding have been the Christian Creeds which he regards as maps to the landscape of faith His hope in this volume is that we too may grasp comprehensively the treasure to which they point the living God who is the ground of our existence Jesus Christ who journeys with us the Holy Spirit who offers us reassurance and affirmation on the way Drawing on the theology of popular writers like C S Lewis G K Chesterton and Dorothy L Sayers and full of stories and illustrations this vivid portrayal of the imaginative power and vision of Christianity will prove invaluable to clergy church leaders theological students and all who long to expand their understanding and love of God

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

The New Apologetics Ian S. Markham, 2020-03-27 Skepticism about Christianity abounds Building on the work of Charles Taylor Ian S Markham argues that contemporary skepticism is more a mood than an intellectual repudiation of Christian theology In its attempt to accommodate science the church too often opts for deistic responses that take the spiritual out of the material Against this response Markham argues for a rich imaginative account of the world that is grounded in Christian revelation and affirms spiritual causation angels and the reality of the saints It is a clarion call for the Western church to learn from the church in the Global South and create a rich theology that lives up to its professed values as a genuinely inclusive church

A Natural Theology of the Arts Anthony Monti,2017-07-05 A Natural Theology of the Arts contends that the arts are theological by their very nature and not simply when they are explicitly religious thereby constituting a distinctive kind of natural theology Borrowing from science the stance of critical realism to justify truth claims in art and theology it argues that works of art are complex metaphors that convey the real presence of God even when not labelled as such Citing numerous examples from literature painting and music including Shakespeare s King Lear Vermeer s Young Woman with a Water Jug Rembrandt s Return of the Prodigal Son and Stephen Cleobury s experiences performing Bach s St Matthew Passion and Britten s Rejoice in the Lamb the author concludes that works of art anticipate the new creation thereby suggesting a Trinitarian account of the God present in the creation and reception of such works
