The Essential Gesture Writing Politics Places:

Surpassing the Spectacle Carol Becker, 2002 Leading social critic Carol Becker offers a timely analysis of the nature of art and its role in politics and society Completed just before the September 11 2001 World Trade Center catastrophe this book is remarkably prescient of the new concerns that have now become foremost in our thoughts since the attack Becker raises the question of the place of art and the function of public intellectuals in a society desperately in need of creativity and leadership Visit our website for sample chapters The Essential Gesture Nadine Gordimer, 1988 Contested Identities Roger Nicholson, Gertrud Szamosi, Claudia Marquis, 2015-09-04 This volume brings together essays that individually and collectively address the force of the literary text with regard to problematic identities They work out of shared concerns with literary representations of this issue in different regions nations and communities that often prove divided they pursue questions related to textual identity where the literary text itself is contested internally or in its generic and historical relations In sum these studies actively test identity as social or literary concept discovering in difference the very condition of a useful if paradoxical sense of personal or textual coherence What happens to us when we move between different cultures or different societies defined in geographical or historical terms What happens to texts and textual practices in these same circumstances What happens to us when we are obliged to adapt to a new social order Homi Bhabha speaks of cultural difference as calling into play what he calls cultural translation What happens to identity the narrative that fashions a continued sense of self in this case Difference raised to alterity demands that we accord functional and philosophical value not just to other aspects but also to the aspect of the other At the level of personal or textual agency however difference contests and threatens to subvert stable selfhood composing a scene of conflict Even so it often proves to be instrumental in re charging a sense of the cultural valence of the literary text not least by virtue of its political implications In this regard the border where difference materialises has considerable presence in contributions to this volume prompting appreciation of texts that work on or travel across such borders however haphazardly and dangerously but also those that compose border textualities Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. publications On Literary Attachment in South Africa releases literature to speak to us today within the contours of its originating energy

Post-Apartheid Gothic Mélanie Joseph-Vilain, 2021-03-19 Post Apartheid Gothic White South African Writers and Space analyzes the representation of space in recent works by South African writers By combining analytical tools borrowed from Gothic studies with geocritical and postcolonial approaches M lanie Joseph Vilain assesses the literary mechanisms utilized by Damon Galgut Henrietta Rose Innes Lauren Beukes Justin Carwright and Lynn Freed to negotiate the complexities of post apartheid identities in their fiction Joseph Vilain argues that the literary representations of emblematic places real or imagined the home the farm the city or the non places of dystopia express and reveal anxieties linked to the sharing of space in post apartheid South Africa The text successively re visits the places that have been shaping South African white writing since Olive Schreiner s African Farm in other words its topoi both in the etymological sense of place and in the literary sense of recurring themes or arguments Joseph Vilain argues that these Gothicized topoi have provided writers with tools to explore the deep anxieties generated by the redefinition of South African society as the Rainbow Nation While focusing specifically on the South African avatars of the Gothic and their interaction with local forms and genres like the plaasroman the text also discusses the impact of globalization on South African literary cultural social and political identities

White on Black in South Africa Michael Wade, 2016-07-27 The English speaking whites of South Africa participate in the larger culture of the English speaking world while rejecting its unspoken consensual positions on many basic issues This study analyses texts of different kinds produced by the group to examine the way these deviant English speakers see themselves and particularly how this self image is influenced by the presence of the blacks who constitute a crucial part of their perceptual field Economically powerful but politically marginal for many years the English speaking whites have always been mediators of their community s experience to the world culture of the English language the study shows how the act of mediation operates in more than one direction producing a literary tradition that is essentially and perhaps surprisingly dissident

Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author s writings an overview of the critical response to the author s work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature

Postcolonial Representations Françoise Lionnet, 2018-07-05 Passionate allegiances to competing theoretical camps have stifled dialogue among today's literary critics asserts Françoise Lionnet Discussing a number of postcolonial narratives by women from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds she offers a comparative feminist approach that can provide common ground for debates on such issues as multiculturalism universalism and relativism Lionnet uses the concept of m tissage or cultural mixing in her readings of a rich array of Francophone and Anglophone texts by Michelle Cliff from Jamaica Suzanne Dracius Pinalie from Martinique Ananda Devi from Mauritius Maryse Conde and Myriam Warner Vieyra from Guadeloupe Gayl Jones from the United States Bessie Head from Botswana Nawal El Saadawi from Egypt and Leila Sebbar from Algeria and France Focusing on themes of exile and displacement and on narrative treatments of culturally sanctioned excision polygamy and murder Lionnet examines the psychological and social mechanisms that allow individuals to negotiate conflicting cultural influences In her view these writers reject the opposition between self and other and base their self portrayals on a m tissage of forms and influences Lionnet's perspective has much to offer critics and theorists whether they are interested in First or Third World contexts American or French critical perspectives essentialist or poststructuralist epistemologies J.M. Coetzee and the Archive Marc Farrant, Kai Easton, Hermann Wittenberg, 2021-03-25 Making extensive use of the rich archival material contained within the Coetzee collections in Texas and South Africa from the earliest drafts and notebooks to the research notes and digital records that document his later career as both writer and academic this volume investigates the historical cultural and aesthetic contexts of Coetzee's oeuvre Cutting edge and interdisciplinary in approach the book looks both at the prolific archival traces of Coetzee's early and middle work as well as examines his more recent work which has yet to be archived and a wide range of materials beyond the manuscripts including family albums school notebooks and correspondence Navigating Coetzee's interests in areas as diverse as literature photography autobiography philosophy animals and embodied life this is also an exploration of the archive as both theory and practice It raises questions about the tensions contradictions and discoveries of archival research and suggests that a literary engagement with the past is crucial to a recovery of culture in the present Sindiwe Magona and the Power of Paradox Renée Schatteman,2024-04-23 This book examines the work of Sindiwe Magona one of South Africa's most prolific and groundbreaking writers widely recognized for highlighting the everyday experiences of women and the domestic side of apartheid A pioneer among black African women writers she is equally respected as storyteller advocate for children's education activist for HIV AIDS awareness and champion of indigenous languages In this book Renée Schatteman contends that Magona's most important contribution comes through her refusal to choose sides in the contentious debates that have polarized public discourse following apartheid By straddling two or more sides of a controversy and challenging any who do harm to others and to the nation regardless of their position she blurs distinctions that are assumed to be absolute opens new avenues of understanding and inspires alternative visions for the future By occupying the space of paradox she undermines the closed epistemological structures inherited from apartheid and champions the need for interdependence truth telling and dialogue Covering her creative production over three decades which includes novels autobiographies and biographies short story collections children's books and literature about HIV AIDS this book is an essential read for Magona enthusiasts as well as for researchers of African literature and postcolonial South Africa The Oxford History of the Novel in English

Simon Gikandi,2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Indigenous Archaeologies Margaret Bruchac,Siobhan Hart,H Martin Wobst,2016-06-03 This comprehensive reader on indigenous archaeology shows that collaboration has become a key part of archaeology and heritage practice worldwide Collaborative projects and projects directed and conducted by indigenous peoples independently have become standard community concerns are routinely addressed and oral histories are commonly incorporated into research This volume begins with a substantial section on theoretical and philosophical underpinnings then presents key articles from around the globe in sections on Oceania North America Mesoamerica and South America Africa Asia and Europe Editorial introductions to each piece contextualize them in the intersection of archaeology and indigenous studies This major collection is an ideal text for courses in indigenous studies archaeology heritage management and related fields
