The Ethnic I A Sourcebook For Ethnic American Autobiography:

The Ethnic I James Craig Holte, 1988-01-26 From colonial times to the present traveler and immigrant writers have seen America with new eyes They have perceived and recorded the American experience as few native born writers could do yet their lives and words have often been left out of traditional American studies This book provides an overview of ethnic American personal writing with descriptive studies of more than twenty five major autobiographies In addition to providing biographical information about the writers and bibliographical data about their texts the volume presents both descriptions and analyses of the selected narratives Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms

Negotiation of Identities in Multilingual Contexts Aneta Pavlenko, Adrian Blackledge, 2004 This volume highlights the role of language ideologies in the process of negotiation of identities and shows that in different historical and social contexts different identities may be negotiable or non negotiable American Indian Children at School, 1850-1930 Michael C. Coleman, 2008 Drawn from Native American autobiographical accounts a study revealing white society's program of civilizing American Indian schoolchildren Racism in the United States Meyer Weinberg, 1990-05-21 This volume represents the most comprehensive book length bibliography on the subject of racism available in the United States Compiler Meyer Weinberg has surveyed a wide ranging group of material and classified it under 87 subject headings drawing on articles books congressional hearings and reports theses and dissertations research reports and investigative journalism Historical references cover the long history of racism while the heightened awareness and activity of the recent past is also addressed in detail In addition to works that fit the narrow definition of racism as a mode of oppression or group denial of rights based on color Weinberg includes references dealing with sexism antisemitism economic exploitation and similar forms of dehumanization References are grouped under a series of subject headings that include Civil Rights Desegregation Housing Socialism and Racism Unemployment and Violence against Minorities Items which do not have self explanatory titles are annotated and virtually every section is thoroughly cross referenced Also included is one section of carefully selected references on racism in countries other than the United States Unlike the remainder of the book this section is not comprehensive but rather provides an opportunity to view racism comparatively The volume concludes with an author index This work will be a significant addition to both academic and public libraries as well as an important resource for courses in racism sociology and black history Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry

Growing Up Ethnic Martin Japtok, 2005-04 Growing Up Ethnic examines the presence of literary similarities between African American and Jewish American coming of age stories in the first half of the twentieth century often these similarities exceed what could be explained by sociohistorical correspondences alone Martin Japtok argues that these similarities result from the way both African American and Jewish American authors have conceptualized their ethnic situation The issue of race and its social repercussions certainly defy any easy comparisons However the fact that the ethnic situations are far from identical in the case of these two groups only highlights the striking thematic correspondences in how a number of African American and Jewish American coming of age stories construct ethnicity Japtok studies three pairs of novels James Weldon Johnson s Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man and Samuel Orntz s Haunch Paunch and Jowl Jessie Fauset s Plum Bun and Edna Ferber s Fanny Herself and Paule Marshall s Brown Girl Brownstones and Anzia Yezierska s Bread Giver and argues that the similarities can be explained with reference to mainly two factors ultimately intertwined cultural nationalism and the Bildungsroman genre Growing Up Ethnic shows that the parallel configurations in the novels which often see ethnicity in terms of spirituality as inherent artistic ability and as communal responsibility are rooted in nationalist ideology However due to the authors generic choice the Bildungsroman the tendency to view ethnicity through the rhetorical lens of communalism and spiritual essence runs head on into the individualist assumptions of the protagonist centered Bildungsroman The negotiations between these ideological counterpoints characterize the novels and reflect and refract the intellectual ferment of their time This fresh look at ethnic American literatures in the context of cultural nationalism and the Bildungsroman will be of great interest to students and scholars of literary and race studies Choice ,2001 The Trouble with Sauling Around Madeline Ruth Walker, 2011-08-16 Examining autobiographical texts by Malcolm X The Autobiography of Malcolm X Oscar Zeta Acosta The Autobiography of a Brown Buffalo and Revolt of the Cockroach People Amiri Baraka The Autobiography of LeRoi Jones and Richard Rodriguez Hunger for Memory Days of Obligation and Brown Walker questions the often rosy views and simplistic binary conceptions of religious conversion Her reading of these texts takes into account the conflict and serial changes the authors experience in a society that marginalizes them the manner in which religious conversion offers ethnic Americans salvation through cultural assimilation or cultural nationalism and what conversion anticonversion and deconversion narratives tell us about the problematic effects of religion that often go unremarked because of a code of special respect and political correctness Walker asserts that critics have been too willing to praise religion in America as salutary or beyond the ken of criticism because religious belief is seen as belonging to an untouchable arena of cultural identity The Trouble with Saul goes beyond traditional literary criticism to pay close attention to the social phenomena that underlie religious conversion narratives and considers the potentially negative effects of religious conversion something that has been likewise neglected by scholars Encyclopedia of Multiculturalism, Supplement: 1998 . Mfume, Kweisi-Wyatt v. Strickley, 1998 African American Genealogical Sourcebook Paula Kay Byers, 1995 Gale has launched another new project Genealogical Sourcebook series and the first volumes look promising The remaining volumes on Asian Americans and Native Americans will be published this summer Libraries can order all four volumes for 239 0 8103 8541 4 Part 1 of each volume consists of informative essays on immigration and migration basic genealogical methods and resources and problems specific to ethnic genealogy such as naming practices the reuse of graves where families could not afford perpetual sites and reasons for deliberate falsification of records Explanations and tips on accessing records specific to these groups such as those of the Freedmen s Bureau and the Inquisition records of religious orders and an overview of newspaper ads and Hispanic heraldry are instructive and pragmatic Tables examples and an extensive bibliography are included Part 2 Directory of Genealogical Information lists libraries and archives public and private organizations print resources and other media that hold materials relevant to genealogists whether their focus is on genealogy in general or on a specific ethnic group Libraries and archives are listed geographically those outside the U S are in Canada for African Americans and in Guatemala Spain Mexico Argentina Peru Uruguay Venezuela Cuba Chile Colombia Ecuador and Canada for Hispanic Americans There are surprisingly few listings for Florida which has a substantial Hispanic population Private and public organizations include commercial ventures publishers researchers for a fee bookstores and nonprofits genealogical societies the American Antiquarian Society etc The section entitled Print Resources lists many sources from the 1980s but there are also current publications The author and title organization indexes access only the products and sources listed in part 2 The subject index accesses the essays in part 1 Libraries that hold books such as George R Ryskamp s Tracing Your Hispanic Heritage 1984 will want to keep them for their scholarly thoroughness They will want to add these new books for their relative currency and for their simpler explanations of complicated facets of black and Hispanic culture BL 05 15 1995 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang, 2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Ethnic America, 1970-1977 Melvin Hecker, 1979 Twofold Transitions Birte Künstler, 2012 Encyclopedia of

Multiculturalism Susan Auerbach, 1994 A general student reference of uncommon interest examining American history and society through the experience of racial ethnic national religious and other marginalized groups including children disabled people and gays and lesbians whose experiences and views have often been excluded from the mainstream of American history The encyclopedia focuses on key multicultural concepts events people places and organizations in alphabetical entries from the A Philip Randolph Institute to the anti Mexican American zoot suit riots of 1943 The shortest entries are brief 100 word biographies of significant people past and present Signed articles on major subjects such as colonialism sexual harassment assimilation and civil rights contain up to 5 000 words Many entries are accompanied by photographs maps diagrams and charts Volume 6 includes a time line multicultural resource directory filmography bibliography subject list and index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Ethnic Chronology Series, 1979 Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates

The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, 1974 Making It in America Elliott Robert Barkan, 2001-05-01 This collection of over 400 biographies of eminent ethnic Americans celebrates a wide array of inspiring individuals and their contributions to U S history The stories of these 400 eminent ethnic Americans are a testimony to the enduring power of the American dream These men and women from 90 different ethnic groups certainly faced unequal access to opportunities Yet they all became renowned artists writers political and religious leaders scientists and athletes Kahlil Gibran Daniel Inouye Zbigniew Brzezinski Thurgood Marshall Madeleine Albright and many others are living proof that the land of opportunity sometimes lives up to its name Alongside these success stories as historian Elliot R Barkan notes in his introduction to this volume there have been many failures and many immigrants who did not stay in the United States Nevertheless the stories of these trailblazers visionaries and champions portray the breadth of possibilities from organizing a nascent community to winning the Nobel prize They also provide irrefutable evidence that no single generation and no single cultural heritage can claim credit for what America is
