Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century

Liturgy in the Twenty-First Century Alcuin Reid, 2016-07-14

Because the Sacred Liturgy is truly the font from which all the Church's power flows we must do everything we can to put the Sacred Liturgy back at the very heart of the relationship between God and man I ask you to continue to work towards achieving the liturgical aims of the Second Vatican Council and to work to continue the liturgical renewal promoted by Pope Benedict XVI especially through the post synodal apostolic exhortation Sacramentum Caritatis and the motu proprio Summorum Pontificum I ask you to be wise like the householder who knows when to bring out of his treasure things both new and old see Mtt 13 52 so that the Sacred Liturgy as it is celebrated and lived today may lose nothing of the estimable riches of the Church's liturgical tradition whilst always being open to legitimate development These words of Robert Cardinal Sarah Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship underline the liturgy's fundamental role in every aspect of the life and mission of the Church Liturgy in the Twenty First Century makes available the different perspectives on this from leading figures such as Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone Abbot Philip Anderson Father Thomas Kocik Dom Alcuin Reid and Dr Lauren Pristas Considering questions of liturgical catechetics music preaching how young people relate to the liturgy matters of formation and reform etc Liturgy in the Twenty First Century is an essential resource for all clergy and religious and laity involved in liturgical ministry and formation Bringing forth new treasures as well as old its contributors identify and address contemporary challenges and issues facing the task of realising the vision of Cardinal Sarah Cardinal Ratzinger Benedict XVI and the Second Vatican Council T&T Clark Companion to Liturgy Alcuin Reid, 2015-12-17 In the decades following the Second Vatican Council Catholic liturgy became an area of considerable interest and debate if not controversy in the West Mid late 20th century liturgical scholarship upon which the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council were predicated and implemented no longer stands unquestioned The liturgical and ecclesial springtime the reforms of Paul VI were expected to facilitate has failed to emerge leaving many questions as to their wisdom and value Quo vadis Catholic liturgy This Companion brings together a variety of scholars who consider this question at the beginning of the 21st century in the light of advances in liturgical scholarship decades of post Vatican II experience and the critical re examination in the West of the question of the liturgy promoted by Benedict XVI The contributors each eminent in their field have distinct takes on how to answer this question but each makes a significant contribution to contemporary debate making this Companion an essential reference for the study of Western Catholic liturgy in history and in the light of contemporary scholarship and debate The Eucharistic Prayer at Sunday Mass Richard E. McCarron, 2008-04-28 Down in the valley God asked the prophet Ezekiel a mighty question Mortal can these dry bones live Ezekiel 37 3 Today this question is being posed once more to those who are charged with the preparation and celebration of the Sunday liturgy the assembly that celebrates the ministers from within that assembly who prepare and serve and those ordained as priests or bishops who preside We have a come a long way since the early days of the conciliar reform of the liturgy Assemblies respond and sing the word is proclaimed with dignity and reverence careful attention is given to environment and season and all come to the communion table Many assemblies strive to realize fully week after week the vision of the Council that the eucharistic liturgy be seen heard felt and smelt as the summit toward which the activity of the church is directed the source from which all its power flows This is critical work if we are utterly convinced that the preeminent manifestation of the church is present in the full active participation of all God's holy people in these liturgical celebrations But many still know liturgical assemblies that are but shadows of who they are called to be and celebrations are slivers of what they could be Many stand at the brink of the valley and behold dry bones And when we come to the eucharistic prayer named the central prayer of the Sunday liturgy we behold very dry bones indeed The question is put forth Can these dry bones live We have come to realize that liturgy is something people do something people live The eucharistic prayer is more than its words It is a way of praying and living What lies in the ritual book must be enfleshed when we gather We come together and breathe life into our rituals and their words We can do this because we have first been sealed in the Spirit the one who aids us in our weakness to pray that the very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words Romans 8 26 Primary Readings on the Eucharist Thomas Fisch, 2004 This collection of essays covers fundamental aspects of the Eucharist from the Biblical notion of memorial to the issues of intercommunion and the relationship between the Eucharist and the Church The chapters give evidence of increasing theological convergence in the thinking of contemporary Eastern and Western theologians on the Eucharist This consensus is the result of developments in Biblical studies our increasing knowledge of the Fathers and the findings of liturgical studies and the historical study of the Church s liturgy in the East and the West Back cover Models of the Eucharist, Second Edition Irwin, Kevin W., 2020 In this book updated with the texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal Kevin Irwin reflects on the jewel in the crown of Catholicism the celebration of the Eucharist His book theological pastoral and contemporary is essentially concerned with issues about the Eucharist that face us today decades after the truly historic and unprecedented revisions that took after the Second Vatican Council Some of these concerns are the result of unforeseen developments about the Eucharist resulting from other factors for example the decline in numbers of clergy which has led in some places to Sunday celebrations without the Mass Other concerns arise from a lack of proper catechesis about the Mass and a keen desire to understand why and how the Eucharist is at the center of Catholic life In addition to being expressly theological this book is also expressly pastoral in that it is a reflection on the life lived by the church as it enacts the Eucharist and seeks to live out what the Eucharist celebrates The book is aimed at the audience of educated Catholics who seek a deeper appreciation of what the Eucharist is and who want to appropriate that understanding in the way they live their lives This book will be of particular interest to pastoral ministers both those present and those in training and the communities of faith whom they serve Living Bread, Saving Cup R. Kevin Seasoltz,1982 The articles on Eucharistic liturgy given here are reprinted from the pages of Worship magazine This expanded edition of the 1982 printing includes three additional essays Justice and the Eucharist by R Kevin Seasoltz O S B Stipends and Eucharistic Praxis by M Francis Mannion and Stipends in the New Code of Canon Law by John M Huels O S
