The English Republican Exiles in Europe during the Restoration Gaby Mahlberg, 2020-10 Offers a transnational perspective on 17th century English republicanism focusing on the lived experiences of English republican exiles

Century Readings in Ancient Classical and Modern European Literature John William Cunliffe, Grant Showerman, 1925

From 1989, or European Music and the Modernist Unconscious Seth Brodsky, 2017-01-24 What happened to musical modernism When did it end Did it end In this unorthodox Lacanian account of European New Music Seth Brodsky focuses on the unlikely year 1989 when New Music hardly takes center stage Instead one finds Rostropovich playing Bach at Checkpoint Charlie or Bernstein changing Joy to Freedom in Beethoven's Ninth or David Hasselhoff lip synching Looking for Freedom to thousands on New Year's Eve But if such spectacles claim to master their historical moment New Music unconsciously takes the role of analyst In so doing it restages earlier scenes of modernism As world politics witnesses a turning away from the possibility of revolution musical modernism revolves in place performing century old tasks of losing failing and beginning again in preparation for a revolution to come

Degrees of European Belonging Élisabeth Le, 2021-03-15 While we tend to divide the world into Us and Them a number of grey nuances exist beyond this white and black distinction The purpose of this book is to address the fuzzy areas between Us and Them through the study of European belonging as it is represented in the French elite daily Le Monde Corpora collected from 2014 to 2017 are used for case studies in the framework of Discourse Analysis to look at the use of Europe in headlines and the representation of the United Kingdom Poland Hungary Romania Ukraine Belarus and Turkey The combination of these case studies allows to present a conceptual framework for the representation of Europe by Le Monde However beyond the study of what belonging to Europe means for Le Monde this book is about the legitimacy of being in between i.e. belonging neither totally to Us nor to Them

European Gastronomy into the 21st Century Cailein Gillespie, John Cousins, 2012-05-23 Gastronomy is the art and science of good eating and drinking a concept that extends outwards to embrace wider notions of tradition culture society and civilisation This book provides a rigorous well researched and much needed treatment of the subject systematically outlining the development of European gastronomic tradition and the social economic philosophical and geographical contexts of change the experiences philosophies and relative contributions of great gastronomes past and present the interplay of traditional and contemporary influences on modern gastronomy the relationship between gastronomy and travel and tourism salient issues of nutrition food hygiene and health promotion Taking an all encompassing look at the subject of gastronomy past present and future European Gastronomy into the 21st Century uses example menus and case studies to demonstrate the theory It also provides an insight into the business arena using key destination restaurants to illustrate management techniques and marketing issues Accessible and highly structured the book guides the reader through its wide ranging and thought provoking content

An Economic History of Europe Karl Gunnar Persson, Paul

Sharp,2015-03-12 The second edition of a leading textbook on European economic history updated throughout and with new coverage of post financial crisis Europe Edward and George Herbert in the European Republic of Letters Greg Miller,Anne-Marie Miller-Blaise,2022-08-09 George Herbert 1593 1633 the celebrated devotional poet and his brother Lord Herbert of Cherbury 1583 1648 often described as the father of English deism are rarely considered together This collection explores connections between the full range of the brothers writings and activities despite the apparent differences both in what they wrote and in how they lived their lives More specifically the volume demonstrates that despite these differences each conceived of their extended republic of letters as militating against a violent and exclusive catholicity theirs was a communion in which contention or disputation served to develop more dynamic forms of comprehensiveness The literary philosophical and musical production of the Herbert brothers appears here in its full European context connected as they were with the Sidney clan and its investment in international Protestantism The disciplinary boundaries between poetry philosophy politics and theology in modern universities are a stark contrast to the deep interconnectedness of these pursuits in the seventeenth century Crossing disciplinary and territorial borders contributors discuss a variety of texts and media including poetry musical practices autobiography letters council literature orations philosophy history and nascent religious anthropology all serving as agents of the circulation and construction of transregionally inspired and collective responses to human conflict and violence We see as never before the profound connections face to face as well as textual linking early modern British literary culture with the continent Classic Modern Homes of the Thirties James Ford,Katherine Morrow Ford,2012-07-06 Splendid pictorial record of architectural style strongly influenced by Bauhaus movement Over 300 illustrations show interiors exteriors Details on construction site cost more Classical Rationalism and the Politics of Europe Ann Ward,2018-01-23 Dramatic changes have occurred in Europe in the past quarter century The fall of communism and the expansion of liberal democracy together with the desire to project a new Europa that is united peaceful and prosperous into the future illustrate that political philosophy is what grounds European political discourse and identity Thus an understanding of Europe s political past and potential future directs us to the question What is political philosophy An exploration of the question of political philosophy points us back to Socrates widely regarded as the first political philosopher or the first philosopher to make human beings central to philosophic inquiry Scholars such as Thomas Pangle suggest that a revival of the study of Socratic political philosophy will revive serious consideration of the questions of justice or how one ought to live and demonstrate that classical rationalism is the essential dialectical partner and interrogator of the political theology of Scripture scripture s Classical rationalism in this context is understood as a necessary alternative to modern liberalism inadequate to the task of taking questions of justice seriously as it insists on regarding all religious claims and understandings of virtue as private preferences rather than definitive of the public sphere and contemporary postmodernism which has abandoned rationalism altogether by rejecting any truth claims not understood as relative This volume explores

Socratic rationalism the major alternatives to it in the history of political philosophy the potential impact of returning to it in contemporary times and related themes It takes a multifaceted approach with contributions from scholars in the fields of philosophy and political science A Handbook to Classical Reception in Eastern and Central Europe Zara Martirosova Torlone, Dana LaCourse Munteanu, Dorota Dutsch, 2017-02-06 A Handbook to Classical Reception in Eastern and Central Europe is the first comprehensive English language study of the reception of classical antiquity in Eastern and Central Europe This groundbreaking work offers detailed case studies of thirteen countries that are fully contextualized historically locally and regionally The first English language collection of research and scholarship on Greco Roman heritage in Eastern and Central Europe Written and edited by an international group of seasoned and up and coming scholars with vast subject matter experience and expertise Essays from leading scholars in the field provide broad insight into the reception of the classical world within specific cultural and geographical areas Discusses the reception of many aspects of Greco Roman heritage such as prose philosophy poetry material culture Offers broad and significant insights into the complicated engagement many countries of Eastern and Central Europe have had and continue to have with Greco Roman antiquity

The Classical Age of Islam Marshall G.S. Hodgson, 2024-05-31 First in the comprehensive three volume history of Islamic culture and religion from the award winning scholar and world historian This is a nonpareil work not only because of its command of its subject but also because it demonstrates how ideally history should be written The New Yorker The Venture of Islam has been honored as a magisterial work of the mind since its publication in early 1975 In this three volume study illustrated with charts and maps Marshall G.S. Hodgson traces and interprets the historical development of Islamic civilization from before the birth of Muhammad to the middle of the twentieth century This work grew out of the famous course on Islamic civilization that Hodgson created and taught for many years at the University of Chicago Volume 1 The Classical Age of Islam analyzes the world before Islam Muhammad s challenge and the early Muslim state between 625 and 692 Hodgson then discusses the classical civilization of the High Caliphate This volume also contains a general introduction to the complete work and a foreword by Reuben Smith who as Hodgson s colleague and friend finished the Venture of Islam after the author s death and saw it through to publication The Venture of Islam Conscience and History in a World Civilization The Classical Age of Islam 1 The Expansion of Islam in the Middle Periods 2 The Gunpowder Empires and Modern Times 3 A Satchel Guide for the Vacation Tourist in Europe ,1881 A Satchel Guide for the Vacation Tourist in Europe ,1873 A Compact itinerary of the British isles Belgium and Holland Germany and the Rhine Switzerland France Austria and Italy The Routledge Handbook of Classics, Colonialism, and Postcolonial Theory Katherine Blouin,Ben Akrigg,2024-07-29 This handbook explores the ways in which histories of colonialism and postcolonial thought and theory cast light on our understanding of the ancient Mediterranean world and the discipline of Classics utilizing a wide body of case studies and providing avenues for future research and discussion It brings together chapters by a wide international and intersectional range of scholars coming from a variety of backgrounds and sub disciplinary perspectives and from across the chronological and geographical scope of Classics Chapters cover the state of current research into ancient Mediterranean and South Central and West Asian histories They provide case studies to illustrate both how postcolonial thought has already illuminated our understanding of the ancient Mediterranean world and beyond as well as its potential for the future Chapters also provide opportunities for reflection on the current state of the discipline An introduction by the volume editors offers a survey of the development of postcolonial theory its relationship to other bodies of theory and its connections to Classics Toward the end of the book three scholars with different career and disciplinary perspectives provide short reflections on the themes of the volume and the directions of future research The Routledge Handbook of Classics Colonialism and Postcolonial Theory offers an impressive collection of current research and thought on the subject for students and scholars in classical studies understood in its larger sense as well as in related disciplines such as Archaeology Ancient History Imperial History and the History of Colonialism Reception Studies and Museum Studies For anyone interested in classical antiquity it provides an engaging introduction to a potentially bewildering but ultimately vital and enriching body of thought and theory Preferences and Procedures Torsten J. Selck,2006-03-07 Preferences and Procedures presents and tests game theoretic models of European Union legislative decision making It is inspired by the idea of linking statistical testing strategies firmly to formal models of EU policymaking After describing salient features of the EU legislative process and comparing different models of how the EU negotiates new legislative measures the models predictive power is evaluated On a more general level Preferences and Procedures answers questions regarding the empirically recognizable effects of institutional arrangements on joint bargaining outcomes
