The Evening Star Recollections:

The Evening Star Colette, 1973 Oneonta Memories and Sundry Personal Recollections of the Author Willard Vincent Huntington, 1891 Grand Finales Susan Gubar, 2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O'Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age April Song and Wellesley Memories Mary Russell Bartlett, 1929 The Memories of Life Before the Juneteenth Frederick Douglass, Harriet E. Recounting the Memories of Bangladesh's Liberation War Smruti S. Pattanaik, 2024-02-08 This book encapsulates the creation of Bangladesh with stories of some of those who made it happen from the perspectives of people who fought for recognition of Bangla as one of the state languages of Pakistan those who brought the stories of war to life as it progressed through the Swadhin Bangla Betar Kendro operations by valiant military men sacrifices of Birangonas women of valour whose contribution to the liberation of Bangladesh has often been neglected martyrs who laid down their lives for the birth of the nation and those who worked among the freedom fighters and refugees and kept their morale high The emergence of Bangladesh in 1971 shaped both the nation and its narratives that revolved around partition of the subcontinent earlier in 1947 The history of Bangladesh was rewritten from the people's perspective The struggle of individuals and families who contributed to the liberation of Bangladesh is etched in blood and it is but natural that their perspectives would inform those interested in studying the history of liberation in a larger context More than fifty years have passed since Bangladesh was liberated Yet stories of individual suffering sacrifices and contributions illustrate how people endured the repression inflicted by the Pakistan Army on them and yet fought gallantly Three million were killed 2 million were raped and 10 million became refugees in India Bangladesh's liberation war also represents the struggle of a people to preserve their culture and identity This book captures all these and much more bringing in reminiscences of what 1971 represented to those who contributed directly to the war of liberation The book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of politics and international relations partition studies South Asian studies and refugee and diaspora studies The chapters in this book were originally published in Strategic Analysis Memories of Merton John Bruce Norton, 1868 Memories in Poems Wayne Fuller, 2002-12 Memories in Poems is a collection of four poetry collections compiled into one book written by Wayne Fuller Shadows of Tomorrow A Walk Through Time Friends Along the Way and Share a Smile With Me give the reader a variety of enjoyable reading The poems are both personal and funny thought provoking and enlightening and some you will want to read again and again Care has been taken to include different types of poems so that all that read the book may find a poem that holds a special meaning just for them American memories [by J. Kendall]. John Kendall (of Sale.), 1896 Memories of the Tennysons Hardwicke Drummond Rawnsley, 1912 Memories of the Second World War in Neutral Europe, 1945-2023 Manuel Bragança, Peter Tame, 2023-12-12 This edited volume is a sequel to and a development of The Long Aftermath Cultural Legacies of Europe at War 1936-2016. It focuses on the six major European countries and states that remained officially neutral throughout the Second World War namely Ireland Portugal Spain Sweden Switzerland and the Vatican. Its transnational comparative and interdisciplinary approach addresses complex questions pertaining to collective remembrance national policies and politics and intellectual as well as cultural responses to neutrality during and after the conflict. The contributions are from a broad range of scholars working across the disciplines of history literature film media and cultural studies. Their thought provoking chapters challenge many assumptions about neutrality in the post war European and global context thereby filling a gap in the existing scholarship. Common themes that run through the volume include the intertwined and dynamic links between neutrality and moral responsibility during and after the Second World War the importance of memory politics and popular culture in shaping collective memories and the impact of the Holocaust in shifting traditional perspectives on neutrality since the 1990s. This volume will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates scholars interested in the field of memory studies as well as non specialist readers.

A Swag of Memories Brian Taylor, 2010-07-01 A quintessential Australian bushman Brian Taylor has spent most of his life on the land. Working as a drover a stockman a fencer a shearer and a saddler he has gathered a swag of stories over the years as he travelled way out past the Barcoo along the dusty plains and beside the dry creek beds under the endless southern sky. In A SWAG OF MEMORIES Brian Taylor shares with us these stories of the people he has met the places he has been and the moments long gone that define the traditions of the Australian bush. Like those bush poets and storytellers of days past Taylor brings to life the characters and the creatures of the bush men like Dangerous Dan Smith a hard self reliant man who had a gentler talent Father Peter a parish priest and occasional hero Charlie Gibson an Aboriginal stockman who knew the land better than anyone and Banjo the ever alert dingo watchdog. These colourful and evocative bush tales delightfully capture a slight of Australian life that many of us will never get to see. Luckily with this collection you can sit back with a billy of tea and read all about it.
