The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction: A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included

Up and Doing Janice Rae Williamson, Deborah Gorham, 1989 Women have been instrumental for decades in shaping the peace movement in Canada In this wide ranging and unique collection 37 women activists and authors document and analyse the historical and current events of the movement from the early part of this century to the present The variety of issues raised by these historical documentary theoretical cultural and creative writings express the diverse strategies of women who work for peace and social justice These women eloquently imagine think and act for a more peaceful world At the same time they demonstrate that the peace movement has been substantially influenced by feminism

Adventure, Mystery, and Romance John G. Cawelt, 2014-02-07 In this first general theory for the analysis of popular literary formulas John G Cawelti reveals the artistry that underlies the best in formulaic literature Cawelti discusses such seemingly diverse works as Mario Puzo's The Godfather Dorothy Sayers's The Nine Tailors and Owen Wister's The Virginian in the light of his hypotheses about the cultural function of formula literature He describes the most important artistic characteristics of popular formula stories and the differences between this literature and that commonly labeled high or serious literature He also defines the archetypal patterns of adventure mystery romance melodrama and fantasy and offers a tentative account of their basis in human psychology

War Against the Mafia Don Pendleton, 2014-12-16 The first book in the classic vigilante action series from a writer who spawned a genre The New York Times Overseas Mack Bolan was dubbed Sgt Mercy for the compassion he showed the innocent On the home front they're calling him the Executioner for what he's doing to the guilty In the jungles of Southeast Asia American sniper Mack Bolan honed his skills After twelve years with ninety five confirmed hits he returns home to Massachusetts But it's not to reunite with his family it's to bury them victims in a mass murder suicide Even though Bolan's own father pulled the trigger he knows the old man was no killer He was driven to madness by Mafia thugs who have turned his idyllic hometown into a new kind of war zone Duty calls
