The Dialectics of Exile Sophia A. McClennen,2004 The history of exile literature is as old as the history of writing itself Despite this vast and varied literary tradition criticism of exile writing has tended to analyze these works according to a binary logic where exile either produces creative freedom or it traps the writer in restrictive nostalgia

The Dialectics of Exile Nation Time Language and Space in Hispanic Literatures offers a theory of exile writing that accounts for the persistence of these dual impulses and for the ways that they often co exist within the same literary works

Focusing on writers working in the latter part of the twentieth century who were exiled during a historical moment of increasing globalization transnational economics and the theoretical shifts of postmodernism

Sophia A McClennen proposes that exile literature is best understood as a series of dialectic tensions about cultural identity

Through comparative analysis of Juan Goytisolo Spain Ariel Dorfman Chile and Cristina Peri Rossi Uruguay this book explores how these writers represent exile identity

Each chapter addresses dilemmas central to debates over cultural identity such as nationalism versus globalization time as historical or cyclical language as representationally accurate or disconnected from reality and social space as utopic or dystopic

McClennen demonstrates how the complex writing of these three authors functions as an alternative discourse of cultural identity that not only challenges official versions imposed by authoritarian regimes but also tests the limits of much cultural criticism

Petrarch's Humanism and the Care of the Self Gur Zak,2010-05-17 In this book Gur Zak examines two central issues in Petrarch s works his humanist philosophy and his concept of the self

Meet God Again for the First Time Jon Paulien,2003-04 The author looks at God s patterns in the Bible and His great saving deeds and finds that the Bible is about telling and retelling the story of the God of promise and covenant who keeps working toward His ultimate goal the restoration of Eden

He concludes that Jesus fulfills the longings of the Jewish Scriptures and explains how the law brings freedom and how our assurance of salvation flows from God s justice
