The Renaissance Considered as a Creative Phenomenon Subrata Dasgupta,2021-12-30 By using the fresh investigative language of cognitive history a symbiosis of the methods of cognitive science and historical inquiry this book departs from almost all previous approaches to Renaissance studies The Renaissance has attracted the attention of distinguished scholars from many different vantage points political social economic intellectual and cultural In this volume Subrata Dasgupta sheds an alternative light on the Renaissance by considering it as a creative phenomenon To be creative is to make history by producing material and or abstract artifacts that are both new and consequential to be creative also entails drawing on history and on the culture of the time Most significantly the creative process occurs in individual minds it is a cognitive process of a very special kind Beginning with a prehistory set in classical Greece and medieval Islam this book explores a variety of inventions and discoveries through the 14th 16th centuries mainly in Italy in humanities painting architecture craft technology anatomy natural science and engineering This book will be of interest not only to Renaissance scholars but also to students interested in Renaissance history and the nature of the creative tradition

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb,2006-11-09 The last two decades have seen the emergence of a new field of academic study that examines the interaction between religion and ecology Theologians from every religious tradition have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature and acknowledged their own faiths complicity in the environmental crisis Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the books essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part one will explore traditional religious concepts of and attitudes towards nature and how these have been changed by the environmental crisis Part II looks at larger conceptual issues that transcend individual traditions Part III will examine religious participation in environmental politics
