well as to his servants and wards back at home His letters introduce and ridicule significant eighteenth century concerns such as medicine the growth of urban life class the growth of the periodical press and the public sphere His growing disillusionment at the changing moral and social landscape of England embodies his traditionalist perspective and reveals the absurdities of contemporary culture His sister Tabitha Bramble is a foolish and cantankerous spinster who uses the expedition as an excuse to search for a husband Through her correspondence with Mrs Gwyllim the house keeper at Brambleton Hall Tabitha reveals her selfishness and lack of generosity towards servants and the impoverished Her social pretensions are rendered all the more comical by her frequent misunderstandings misuse of common idioms and atrocious spelling Tabitha s servant Winifred or Win Jenkins also corresponds with the servants at Brambleton Hall As the only correspondent not related to Matthew Bramble Ms Jenkins offers a sympathetic and humorous perspective on the family and their travels As a comic foil to Tabitha Bramble Win Jenkins shares many of her misspellings and malapropisms but demonstrates considerably more common sense and intuition in her observation of the family At London she becomes infatuated with Humphry Clinker and Methodism both Bramble s nephew Jeremy Melford is a young man looking for amusement Corresponding primarily with Sir Watkin Phillips of Jesus College Oxford Jery also reflects upon issues of city life class and the growing public sphere but often with a more progressive perspective than that of his rather traditional uncle Despite his generously democratic views and his astute perceptions of the hypocrisy and absurdity of others he is as revealed through Bramble s letters hot headed and prone to rash anger and impulsive defenses of perceived slights to his family honor especially when it relates to his sister s interest in a stage actor below her status
