Advaita as a Global International Relations Theory Deepshikha Shahi, 2018-07-11 The academic discipline of International Relations strives to attain a global spirit to narrow the cognitive gaps between the West and the Rest On the one hand there is the hegemonic presence of mainstream universalist Eurocentric IR theories and on the other the counter hegemonic presence of particularist Post colonial and De colonial non Eurocentric IR theories Nevertheless both theoretical traditions endorse epistemological dualism that essentially separates the theorizing subject from the theorized object thereby failing to bridge the gaps This book uses the monist schema of subject object merger in the ancient Indian philosophy of Advaita to inaugurate a Global IR theory In the global theoretical schema of Advaitic monism the apparent particularist reality is supplemented not contradicted with the hidden universalist reality the net result of which is a reconciliation of dualism with monism at the theoretical practical level The possibilities of this reconciliation have not been estimated at either level and as such this untapped intellectual strategy stands to enrich both Eurocentric IR and non Eurocentric IR Shahi establishes Advaita as an alternative epistemological methodological tool to re imagine the complex realities of contemporary international politics This fully fledged Global International Relations Theory will appeal to students of international relations political theory administrative theory and philosophy and Padmapada as well as in the teaching of Ramana Maharshi an understudied but important South Indian saint of the 20th century this book offers a substantial contribution to studies of Indian philosophy as well as to contemporary philosophy of religion Using the tools of exegesis and comparative philosophy Forsthoefel argues for a careful justification of claims following religious experience even if such claims involve as they do in the Advaita a paradoxical knowing beyond knowledge
