The Eyes Of Another Race Roger Casement's Congo Report And 1903 Diary:

The Eyes of Another Race Roger Casement, 2003 The story of the colonisation of the Congo Free State by King Leopold II of Belgium during the scramble for Africa is one of the greatest human rights tragedies of recent history At its core was the exploitation of wild rubber then in increasing demand in Western markets The population of the region was subjected to what was in effect slave labour a regime of unbridled savagery which included imprisonment whipping bodily mutilations and killing On 5 June 1903 Roger Casement left his consular base on the Lower Congo River and made a journey through the regions of the Upper Congo to investigate at first hand reports of alleged atrocities After three months travelling he arrived back in Leopoldville on Stanley Pool on 15 September and telegraphed the Foreign Office immediately I have returned from the Upper Congo today with convincing evidence of shocking misgovernment and wholesale oppression Towards the end of the year Casement returned to London where he put together his formal report in consultation with officials of the Foreign Office The Congo Report was presented to Parliament in 1904 It was a crucial instrument in the British government's efforts to bring about change in King Leopold's Congo Free State This edition includes not only the report which has long been unavailable in English but also Casement's diary of that year The diary provides invaluable glimpses of the details of his investigation of the human relationships involved and of the life of a remarkable consul during a key year of his life Both documents have been carefully edited names which were omitted from the original published report have been reinstated and explanatory notes provided for the report and diary Publisher description Ireland and Ecocriticism Eóin Flannery, 2015-10-05 This book is the first truly interdisciplinary intervention into the burgeoning field of Irish ecological criticism Providing original and nuanced readings of Irish cultural texts and personalities in terms of contemporary ecological criticism Flannery's readings of Irish literary fiction poetry travel writing non fiction and essay writing are ground breaking in their depth and scope Explorations of figures and texts from Irish cultural and political history including John McGahern Derek Mahon Roger Casement and Tim Robinson among many others enable and invigorate the discipline of Irish cultural studies and international ecocriticism on the whole This book addresses the need to impress the urgency of lateral ecological awareness and responsibility among Irish cultural and political commentators to highlight continuities and disparities between Irish ecological thought writing and praxis and those of differential international writers critics and activists and to establish both the singularity and contiguity of Irish ecological criticism to the wider international field of ecological criticism With the introduction of concepts such as ecocosmopolitanism deep history ethics of proximity Gaia Theory urban ecology and postcolonial environmentalism to Irish cultural studies it takes Irish cultural studies in bracing new directions Flannery furnishes working examples of the necessary interdisciplinarity of ecological criticism and impresses the relevance of the Irish context to the broader debates within international ecological criticism Crucially the volume imports ecological critical paradigms into the field of Irish studies and demonstrates the value of such conceptual dialogue for the future of Irish cultural and political criticism This pioneering intervention exhibits the complexity of different Irish cultural and historical responses to ecological exploitation degradation and social justice African Testimony in the Movement for Congo Reform Robert Burroughs,2018-06-27 The humanitarian movement against Leopold's violent colonisation of the Congo emerged out of Europe but it depended at every turn on African input Individuals and groups from throughout the upper Congo River basin undertook journeys of daring and self sacrifice to provide evidence of atrocities for the colonial authorities missionaries and international investigators Combining archive research with attention to recent debates on the relation between imperialism and humanitarianism on trauma witnessing and postcolonial studies and on the recovery of colonial archives this book examines the conditions in which colonised peoples were able to speak about their subjection and those in which attempts at testimony were thwarted Robert Burroughs makes a major intervention by identifying African agency and input as a key factor in the Congo atrocities debate This is an important and unique book in African history imperial and colonial history and humanitarian history The Racial Hand in the Victorian Imagination Aviva Briefel,2015-09-16 A fascinating study that explores the power of the racially identified hand as a narrative symbol in Victorian literature and culture Field Day Review 7 James Chandler,Kevin Honan,Luke Gibbons,Seamus Deane,Niall Meehan,Kerby Miller,Lucy Cotter,Tony Crowley,2011-10-15 Irish Studies essays from the best academics in the field

British Humanitarianism and the Congo Reform Movement, 1896-1913 Dean Pavlakis,2016-03-09 The Congo Free State was under the personal rule of King Leopold II of the Belgians from 1885 to 1908 The accolades that attended its founding were soon contested by accusations of brutality oppression and murderous misrule but the controversy by itself proved insufficient to prompt changes Starting in 1896 concerned men and women used public opinion to influence government policy in Britain and the United States to create space for reforming forces in Belgium itself to pry the Congo from Leopold's grasp and implement reforms Examining key factors in the successes and failures of a pivotal movement that aided the colonized people of the Congo and broadened the idea of human rights British Humanitarianism and the Congo Reform Movement provides a valuable update to scholarship on the history of humanitarianism in Africa The Congo Reform movement built on the institutional experience of overseas humanitarianism the energy of evangelical political involvement and innovations in racial imperial and nationalist discourse to create political energy Often portrayed as the efforts of a few key people especially E D Morel this book demonstrates that the movement increasingly manifested itself as an institutionalized and transnational campaign with support from key government officials that ultimately made a material difference to the lives of the people of the Congo A ›Crisis of Whiteness‹ in the ›Heart of Darkness‹ Felix Lösing,2021-01-12 The British and American Congo Reform Movement ca 1890 1913 has been praised extensively for its heroic confrontation of colonial atrocities in the Congo Free State Its commitment to white supremacy and colonial domination however continues to be overlooked denied or trivialised This historical sociological study argues that racism was the ideological cornerstone and formed the main agenda of this first major human rights campaign of the 20th century Through a thorough analysis of contemporary sources Felix L sing unmasks the colonial and racist formation of the modern human rights discourse and investigates the historical work of racism at a crossroads between imperial power and white crisis

War Crimes, Genocide, and Justice D. Crowe, 2014-01-15 In this sweeping definitive work historian David Crowe offers an unflinching account of the long and troubled history of genocide and war crimes From ancient atrocities to more recent horrors he traces their disturbing consistency but also the heroic efforts made to break seemingly intractable patterns of violence and retribution

Performing Trauma in Central Africa Laura Edmondson, 2018-03-26 What are the stakes of cultural production in a time of war How is artistic expression prone to manipulation by the state and international humanitarian organizations In the charged political terrain of post genocide Rwanda post civil war Uganda and recent violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo Laura Edmondson explores performance through the lens of empire Instead of celebrating theatre productions as expression of cultural agency and resilience Edmondson traces their humanitarian imperatives to a place where global narratives of violence take precedence over local traditions and audiences Working at the intersection of performance and trauma Edmondson reveals how artists and cultural workers manipulate narratives in the shadow of empire and how empire in turn infiltrates creative capacities

Field Day Review 8 (2012) Deane, S., and Deane, C., Angus Mitchell, Willie Smyth, Joseph A. Buttigieg, Amy Martin, Ronan Sheehan, 2015 Field Day Review the finest essays in Irish Studies

Roger Casement Angus Mitchell, 2014-01-23 A fascinating examination of the extraordinary life of Roger Casement executed as part of the 1916 rising fighting the empire that had previously knighted him Roger Casement was a British consul for two decades However his investigation into atrocities in the Congo led Casement to anti Imperialist views Ultimately this led him to side with the Irish Republican movement leading up to the 1916 rising Arrested by the British for gun trafficking he was incarcerated in the Tower of London and then placed in the dock at the Royal Courts of Justice in an internationally publicised state trial for high treason He was hanged in Pentonville prison on the 3 August two years to the day after Britain's declaration of war in 1914

The Devil and Mr Casement Jordan Goodman, 2020-05-05 In September 1910 the human rights activist and anti imperialist Roger Casement arrived in the Amazon to investigate reports of widespread human rights abuses in the vast forests stretching along the Putumayo river There the Peruvian entrepreneur Julio Cesar Arana ran an area the size of Belgium as his own private fiefdom his British registered company operated a systematic programme of torture exploitation and murder Fresh from documenting the scarcely imaginable atrocities perpetrated by King Leopold in the Congo Casement was confronted with an all too recognisable scenario He uncovered an appalling catalogue of abuse nearly 30 000 Indians had died to produce four thousand tonnes of rubber From the Peruvian rainforests to the City of London Jordan Goodman recounts a crime against humanity that history has almost forgotten but whose exposure in 1912 sent shockwaves around the world Drawing on a wealth of original research The Devil and Mr

Casement is a story of colonial exploitation and corporate greed with enormous contemporary political resonance First Encounters Howard B. Leavitt, 2010-06-11 A collection comprising a wide variety of accounts of native peoples describing their initial encounters with European explorers conquerors and settlers This extraordinary volume gathers together an astonishing array of voices of those so often overlooked by history First Encounters Native Voices on the Coming of the Europeans reaches back to add important overlooked viewpoints to our understanding of history gathering together accounts describing the initial experiences of indigenous peoples around the world with European explorers missionaries traders soldiers and settlers It is the first such volume with a truly global perspective First Encounters brings together 42 authentic first person accounts organized geographically in sections on Africa North America South America greater Australia and Asia Selections each with editor's notes provide vivid detailed accounts of the culture clashes that defined an era From the Opium Wars to the Indian Wars from the Aztecs who thought the white intruders were gods to the Japanese who thought them barbarians readers will encounter a stunning array of voices from the other side of history Hammar skjöld Roger Lipsey, 2013-03-18 After his mysterious death Dag Hammar skjöld was described by John F Kennedy as the greatest statesman of our century Second secretary general of the United Nations 1953-61 he is the only person to have been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize posthumously Through extensive research in little explored archives and personal correspondence Roger Lipsey has produced the definitive biography of Dag Hammar skjöld Hammar skjöld A Life provides vivid new insights into the life and mind of a truly great individual Hammar skjöld the statesman and Hammar skjöld the author of the classic spiritual journal Markings meet in this new biography and the reader will meet them both in these pages A towering mid twentieth century figure Hammar skjöld speaks directly to our time The Body in Pain in Irish Literature and Culture Fionnuala Dillane, Naomi McAreavey, Emilie Pine, 2016-12-06 This book elucidates the ways the pained and suffering body has been registered and mobilized in specifically Irish contexts across more than four hundred years of literature and culture There is no singular approach to what pain means the material addressed in this collection covers diverse cultural forms from reports of battles and executions to stage and screen representations of sexual violence produced in response to different historical circumstances in terms that confirm our understanding of how pain whether endured or inflicted witnessed or remediated is culturally coded Pain is as open to ongoing redefinition as the Ireland that features in all of the essays gathered here This collection offers new paradigms for understanding Ireland's literary and cultural history Transcultural Insights into Contemporary Irish Literature and Society María Amor Barros-del Río, 2024-07-19 Transcultural Insights into Contemporary Irish Literature and Society examines the transcultural patterns that have been enriching Irish literature since the twentieth century and engages with the ongoing dialogue between contemporary Irish literature and society Driven by the growing interest in transcultural studies in the humanities this volume provides an insightful analysis of how Irish literature handles the delicate balance between authenticity and folklore and uniformisation and diversity in an increasingly globalised world

Following a diachronic approach the volume includes critical readings of canonical Irish literature as an uncharted exchange of intercultural dialogues The text also explores the external and internal transcultural traits present in recent Irish literature and its engagement with social injustice and activism and discusses location and mobility as vehicles for cultural transfer and the advancement of the women s movement A final section also includes an examination of literary expressions of hybridisation diversity and assimilation to scrutinise negotiations of new transcultural identities In the light of the compiled contributions the volume ends with a revisitation of Irish studies in a world in which national identity has become increasingly problematic This volume presents new insights into the fictional engagement of contemporary Irish literature with political social and economic issues and its efforts to accommodate the local and the global resulting in a reshaping of national collective imaginaries

A Violent History Giacomo Macola,2025-09-03 Since the early nineteenth century political and military violence has played an exceptionally significant role in the territory corresponding to the present day Democratic Republic of Congo By emphasising the periodic re occurrence of warlordism and the economy of plunder that characterises it Giacomo Macola offers new analytical tools to interpret the history of the societies of the Congo Basin over the past two hundred years In the concluding chapters the author dwells on more recent events detailing the collapse of Mobutu s Zaire the Great African War and the reasons for the continuing armed instability in the east of the country Supplementing analyses of the contemporary dimension of African conflicts Macola makes a case for the enduring importance of studying precolonial history

Translation and Circulation of Migration Literature Stephanie Schwerter,Katrina Brannon,2022-07-22 In the field of Translation Studies no book length work in English has yet been dedicated to the translation and circulation of migration literature The authors of this volume seek to contribute to filling this gap through a detailed study of texts belonging to a variety of literary genres and engaging with the phenomenon of migration in different parts of the world Not only will the challenges met by translators be discussed but the different ways in which the translated texts travel from one cultural sphere to another will also be explored The focus lies on the themes migration and politics migration and society as well as the experience of migration in words music and images

Redefining Latin American Historical Fiction H. Weldt-Basson,2013-06-05 Current scholarship on Latin American historical fiction has failed to take feminism and postcolonialism into account This study uses these important contemporary discourses as a starting point for a new definition of the Latin American historical novel that includes national identity magical realism historical intertextuality and symbolism

Imperial Debris Ann Laura Stoler,2013-05-10 Imperial Debris redirects scholarly focus away from ruins as evidence of the past to ruination as the processes through which imperial power occupies the environment and bodies and minds in the present
