Philosophy After Hiroshima Fred Dallmayr, 2020-05-15 Philosophy after Hiroshima offers a philosophical analysis of the issues surrounding war and peace and their challenges to ethics It reminds us that the threat posed to civilization by nuclear weapons persists as does the need for continuing philosophical reflection on the nature of war the problem of violence and the need for a workable ethics in the nuclear age The book recalls the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki as the beginning of the nuclear age the Cold War and subsequently of the hegemonic unilateralism of the sole superpower Reviewing early critical responses to the first atomic bombings by such figures as Camus Sartre Russell Heidegger Jaspers and others the authors themselves respond to contemporary threats to peace including the US global war on terrorism the recrudescence of militarism and the continuation of imperial power politics by other means In the nuclear age the use of military force as a political instrument threatens the future of humanity This poses formidable challenges to philosophy and calls for its transformation In using memories of the atomic bombings to help us to grasp the moral implications of the current escalation of global violence the authors hope to show the urgent relevance of nonviolence in the contemporary context Drawing on a range of philosophical traditions Taoist and Western the contributors take up a welter of philosophical and political concerns of topical interest including human rights toleration the politics of memory intercultural dialogue the ethics of co responsibility and the possibility of a cosmopolitan order of law and peace Going beyond postmodernism and deconstruction several of the authors develop a post critical constructive paradigm of thinking a philosophy of the possible and a new methodology for the realization of the creative potential of the humanities Philosophy is viewed as a peace promoting global dialogue

Is The Self Dissolved? Dr. Vandana Pathak, 2024-05-11 Dr Vandana Pathak invites you to explore the very essence of who we are in the modern world Is the Self Dissolved is her doctoral thesis and tackles a thought provoking question whether our sense of self has fundamentally changed When we read books of Victorian times we saw a linearity in characters there was sense and a clear trajectory like Pip s love for Estella But in the Modern age there is a lack of this centrality of the Self Let apart loving others finding meaning in social institutions we rarely know and love ourselves Hence Meursault Josef K and Roquentin are not just characters in iconic philosophical novels but rather pieces of the modern scattered humans who do not feel as whole as root or as centered as previous generations The modern Self seems in constant flux matching the external problem with an internal dissolution In this light this book uses history philosophy psychology and sociology to understand this dissolution of self This is made particularly poignant in light of recent global turmoil such as the Covid 19 pandemic and conflicts in Palestine and Ukraine Through this book Dr Vandana also urges readers to navigate these uncertain times with introspection of the Self and universal empathy Easternization of the West Colin

Campbell,2015-11-17 In this provocative and groundbreaking book Colin Campbell shows that the civilization of the West is undergoing a revolutionary process of change one in which features that have characterized the West for two thousand years are in the process of being marginalized to be replaced by those more often associated with the civilizations of the East

Moving far beyond popular trends Campbell assembles a powerful range of evidence to show how Easternization has been building throughout the last century especially since the 1960s Campbell demonstrates how it was largely in the 1960s that new interpretations in theology political thought and science were widely adopted by a new generation of young culture carriers This highly original and wide ranging book advances a thesis that will be of interest to scholars in many disciplines in the humanities and social sciences The Literary Criterion ,1988 The Journal of Philosophy ,1975 The
