The Face of a Man Ethan Hubbard,1997 The different cultures proved to be empowering teachers The Inuit who gave their babies away to those with none taught me unconditional love The native Americans held a reverence for the natural world Grandfather Sky and Mother Earth The Maoris knew the joy of singing The Australian Aborigines believed that the dream world was more real than the ordinary world The Scots had learned to accept the weather the Tibetans their fate The Samoans believed that whoever appeared on their doorstep became family from the Preface Face Politics Jenny Edkins,2015-04-10 The face is central to contemporary politics In Deleuze and Guattari s work on faciality we find an assertion that the face is a particular politics and dismantling the face is also a politics This book explores the politics of such diverse issues as images and faces in photographs and portraits expressive faces psychology and neuroscience face recognition face blindness facial injury disfigurement and face transplants through questions such as What it might mean to dismantle the face and what politics this might entail in practical terms What sort of a politics is it Is it already taking place Is it a politics that is to be desired a better politics a progressive politics The book opens up a vast field of further research that needs to be taken forward to begin to address the politics of the face more fully and to elaborate the alternative forms of personhood and politics that dismantling the face opens to view The book will be agenda setting for scholars located in the field of international politics in particular but cognate areas as well who want to pursue the implications of face politics for the crucial questions of subjectivity sovereignty and personhood Man's Life on Earth and in the Spiritual Worlds Rudolf Steiner,1960 Chris Marker Sarah Cooper,2019-01-04 Since the early 1950s Chris Marker has embraced different filmmaking styles as readily as he has new technologies and has broadened conceptions of the documentary in distinctly personal ways He has travelled around the world tracking political upheavals and historic events as well as unearthing the stories buried under official reporting This globetrotting filmmaker testifies to his six decades on the move through a passionate devotion to the moving image Yet from the outset his filmic images reveal a fascination with stillness It is at this juncture of mobility and immobility that Sarah Cooper situates her comprehensive study of Marker s films She pays attention to the central place that photographs occupy in his work as well as to the emergence in his filming of statuary painting and other static images including the film still and his interest in fixed frame shooting She engages with key debates in photographic and film theory in order to argue that a different conception of time emerges from his filmic explorations of stasis In detailed readings of each of his films including Le souvenir d un avenir and La Jetee Sans soleil and Level 5 Cooper charts Marker s concern with mortality in varied historical and geographical contexts which embraces the fragility of the human race along with that of the planet International Politics and Performance Jenny Edkins,Adrian Kear,2013-11-07 In recent years we have witnessed an increasing convergence of work in International Politics and Performance Studies around the troubled and often troubling relationship between politics and aesthetics Whilst examination of political aesthetics aesthetic politics and politics of aesthetic practice has been central to research in both disciplines for some time the emergence of a distinctive performative turn in International Politics and a critical return to the centrality of politics and the concept of the political in Performance Studies highlights the importance of investigating the productivity of bringing the methods and approaches of the two fields of enquiry into dialogue and mutual relation Exploring a wide range of issues including rioting youth driven protests border security practices and the significance of cultural awareness in war this text provides an accessible and cutting edge survey of the intersection of international politics and performance examining issues surrounding the politics of appearance image event and place and discusses the development and deployment of innovative critical and creative research methods from auto ethnography to site specific theatre making from philosophical aesthetics to the aesthetic thought of new securities scenario planning The book s focus throughout is on the materiality of performance practices on the politics of making spectating and participating in a variety of modes as political actors and audiences whilst also seeking to explicate the performative dynamics of creative and critical thinking Structured thematically and framed by a detailed introduction and conclusion the focus is on producing a dialogue between contributors and providing an essential reference point in this developing field This work is essential reading for students of politics and performance and will be of great interest to students and scholars of IR performance studies and cultural studies The counterintuitive to study photographs that disappear or are difficult to discern Kate Palmer Albers argues that it is precisely this current cultural moment that allows us to recognize what has always been a basic and foundational yet unseen condition of photography its ephemerality Through a series of case studies spanning the history of photography The Night Albums takes up the provocations of artists who collectively redefine how we experience visibility From the protracted hesitations of photography s origins to conceptual and performative art that has emerged since the 1960s to the waves of technological experimentation flourishing today Albers foregrounds artists who offer fleeting hidden conditional and future modes of visibility By unveiling how ephemerality shapes the photographic experience she ultimately proposes an expanded framework for the medium The Publishers Weekly ,1997 Women Scientists in Fifties Science Fiction Films Bonnie Noonan,2005-06-01 In the 1950s science was rapidly advancing and so were scientific opportunities for women Modern science fiction films reflected these simultaneous social developments This book proposes that the social ideology of the 1950s which was partly concerned with gender issues saturated the B science fiction films of that era and inspired a new appreciation for the role of women in scientific advancements and other social achievements Drawing on feminist literary and cultural theory the author argues that the emergence of the modern American science fiction film in 1950 and the situation of post World War II female scientists together created a film genre That genre was explicitly amenable to exploring the tension between a woman s place in her home and her place in the work force particularly in scientific fields Early chapters provide a general introduction to the science fiction genre and specifically describe 1950s B science fiction films as they resonate with concerns proper to feminist theory Subsequent chapters offer detailed historically situated readings of 10 B science fiction films from the 1950s that feature women in science The cinematic representations of female scientists are compared and contrasted with real female professionals of the time illuminating the changing gender dynamics reflected in popular film in the 1950s Films analyzed include Rocketship X M It Came from Beneath the Sea Them Tarantula The Deadly Mantis Beginning of the End Kronos Cat Women of the Moon World Without End and Queen of Outer Space Across the Universe Beth Revis,2011-01-11 Book 1 in the New York Times bestselling trilogy perfect for fans of Battlestar Gallactica and Passengers WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO SURVIVE ABOARD A SPACESHIP FUELED BY LIES Amy is a cryogenically frozen passenger aboard the spaceship Godspeed She has left her boyfriend friends and planet behind to join her parents as a member of Project Ark Ship Amy and her parents believe they will wake on a new planet Centauri Earth three hundred years in the future But fifty years before Godspeed s scheduled landing cryo chamber 42 is mysteriously unplugged and Amy is violently woken from her frozen slumber Someone tried to murder her Now Amy is caught inside an enclosed world where nothing makes sense Godspeed s 2 312 passengers have forfeited all control to Eldest a tyrannical and frightening leader And Elder Eldest s rebellious teenage heir is both fascinated with Amy and eager to discover whether he has what it takes to lead Amy desperately wants to trust Elder But should she put her faith in a boy who has never seen life outside the ship s cold metal walls All Amy knows is that she and Elder must race to unlock Godspeed s hidden secrets before whoever woke her tries to kill again A Face of Courage Tommy Watson,2008-10 The Tommy Watson story is a story about courage the perseverance of a young man who grew up in a crime ridden neighborhood with gang violence drugs and poverty He over came all of those problems to become a football player for the University of Minnesota and eventually a school principal for the Minnesota school system Lovecidal Trinh T. Minh-ha,2016-07-18 In this new work renowned feminist filmmaker and postcolonial theorist Trinh T Minh ha offers a lyrical philosophical meditation on the global state of endless war and the violence inflicted by the imperial need to claim victory She discusses the rise of the police state as linked for example to U S military intervention in Iraq and Afghanistan or to China s occupation of Tibet examining legacies of earlier campaigns and the residual effects of the war on terror She also takes up the shifting dynamics of peoples resistance to acts of militarism and surveillance as well as social media and its capacity to inform and mobilize citizens around the world At once an engaging treatise and a creative gesture Lovecidal probes the physical and psychic conditions of the world and shows us a society that is profoundly heartsick Taking up with those who march both as and for the oppressed who walk with the disappeared to help carry them forward Trinh T Minh ha engages the spiritual and affective dimensions of a civilization organized around the rubrics of nonstop governmental subjugation economic austerity and highly technologized military conflict In doing so she clears a path for us to walk upon Along with our every step the world of the disappeared lives on symbols and metaphors about the self and the body Examining what face means in terms of inclusion and exclusion in contemporary human society and how it is related to shame Pattison reveals what the experience of people who have difficulties with faces tell us about our society our understandings of and our reactions to face Exploring this ubiquitous yet ignored area of both contemporary human experience and of the Christian theological tradition Pattison explains how Christian theology understands face both human and divine and the insights might it offer to understanding face and enfacement Does God in any sense have a physically visible face What is the significance of having an en faced or faceless God for Christian life and practice What does the vision of God mean now If we want to take face and defacing shame seriously and to get them properly into perspective we may need to change our theology thought and practice changing our ways of thinking about God and about theology
