Donald

Hughes, 2015-05-11 Although the organizing principle of virtually every world history text is development the editor of this volume maintains that this traditional approach fails to address the issue of sustainability By adopting the ecological process as their major theme the authors show how the process of human interaction with the natural environment unfolded in the past and offer perspective on the ecological crises in our world at the beginning of the 21st century Topics range from broad regional studies that examine important aspects of the global environment that affect nations to a study of the widespread influence of one important individual on his nation and beyond The authors take different approaches but all share the conviction that world history must take ecological process seriously and they all recognize the ways in which the living and non living systems of the earth have influenced the course of human affairs      The face of the earth E. Face of the Earth and Its Origin Gennadii Nikolaevich Katterfel'd, 1969      The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters

Ta Sba Balamil Ta Ch'ulel ~ On The Face Of The Earth And In The Soul Bruce Rimell,2021-07-14 In 2014 artist and poet Bruce Rimell visited the city of San Crist bal de las Casas Chiapas Mexico as part of a programme of arts cultural events and indigenous ceremonies To prepare for this journey Bruce chose not to learn Spanish but Tzotzil the local Maya language and to explore the indigenous people s beliefs worldviews and ways of life During these researches he learned that the Tzotzil pay close attention to their dreams and they consider that Westerners and non Maya Mexicans who ignore these night time voyages live only half a life This philosophy is expressed in the succinct Tzotzil phrase ta sba balamil ta ch ulel on the face of the Earth and in the soul meaning that human life must be lived in both waking life and dreams This little book of strange verse accompanied by surreal sketches is an attempt to bridge the gap between the Mayan cosmovision and the Western world and represents an integrated reflection of Bruce s journey to Chiapas Featuring visits to contemporary highland Maya villages archaeological sites and time spent with indigenous people on the face of the Earth as well as ceremonies visions and dreams and in the soul that became increasingly influenced by Tzotzil insights into how to live this collection of poetry expresses Bruce s effort to intimate something of that fuller dreaming human life which for the indigenous people of Chiapas is as natural as events in the waking world This delightfully designed volume features poems in both English and selected translations into the Tzotzil language and it is the fourth in the new Xibalba Books Poetry Series aimed at republishing selected highlights from Bruce s vast poetry archive     To all People upon the face of the Earth.
