McDonald, 2018-06-29 Multi denominational congregations offer rich soil for new interpretations of what it means to be a church These parishes have chosen to covenant together for worship service ministry mission and nurturing of faith across two or more denominational traditions Daring to Share tells their stories investigates their practices and proposes a fresh vision of church for the twenty first century This book equips ordained and lay leaders for the formation and flourishing of such ministries It describes five models of partnership analyzes the parish life cycle interprets how worship works addresses constitutional and governance issues and reflects theologically on the intersection of diversity and unity What can we learn from these congregations Studying their particular witness struggles and promise for the future fills a gap in both congregational studies and contemporary ecclesiology Multi denominational parishes are more than a convenient way to revitalize congregational ministry They present new opportunities and approaches for sharing the gospel Ecumenical convergence meets demographic realities to suggest a mission strategy that will transform local practice and perhaps the church itself By daring to share these churches challenge a fractured world Minutes of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the Years 1773-1881 Methodist Episcopal Church. Conferences,1880 False Dawn Lee Penn,2004 The interfaith movement which began with the 1893 World s Parliament of Religions in Chicago has grown worldwide Although this movement has been largely unknown to the public it now provides a spiritual face for globalization the economic and political forces leading us all from nationalism to One World The most ambitious organization in today s interfaith movement is the United Religions Initiative URI founded by William Swing the Episcopal Bishop of California Investigative reporter Lee Penn a Catholic ex Marxist exhaustively documents the history and beliefs of the URI and its New Age and globalist allies the vested interests that support these movements and the direction they appear to be taking The interfaith movement is no longer merely the province of a coterie of little heeded religious idealists with grandiose visions The URI s proponents have ranged from billionaire George Soros to President George W Bush from the far right Rev Sun Myung Moon to the liberal Catholic theologian Hans K ng and from the Dalai Lama to the leaders of government approved Protestant churches in the People s Republic of China The interfaith movement including the URI is being promoted by globalist and New Age reformers who favor erosion of national sovereignty marginalization of traditional religions establishment of global governance and creation of a new Earth based global spirituality in effect a one world religion Therefore the URI and the interfaith movement are poised to become the spiritual foundation of the New World Order the new civilization now proposed by Mikhail Gorbachev the last leader of the Soviet Union In The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times French metaphysician Ren Gu non spoke of the anti tradition the forces of materialism and secular humanism finally giving way to the counter tradition the satanic inversion of true spirituality leading to the regime of Antichrist The anti tradition weakens and dissolves traditional spiritualities after which the counter tradition sets up a counterfeit in their place Since Gu non s time as is well known anti traditional forces have greatly advanced worldwide It is less well known that counter traditional movements have also made great strides and now stand closer to the centers of global political and religious power than ever before The counter tradition is making inroads on the political and cultural Right as much as it is doing on the Left False Dawn painstakingly documents these trends and speculates on their future development In so doing the author takes investigative reporting to the threshold of prophecy and gives us a stunningly plausible picture of the global religious landscape of the 21st century This extraordinary project is the literary equivalent of turning over a flat rock There is much to be seen and learned here all of it unsettling disquieting occasionally downright scary William Murchison Radford Distinguished Professor Baylor University When a bishop of a Christian church happily worships alongside a Wiccan invoking other gods something has gone horribly wrong In False Dawn Lee Penn has produced a comprehensive and critical history of the United Religions Initiative This book sounds a clear warning Anyone who makes theological truth subservient to utopianism denigrates all religions Douglas LeBlanc Editor GetReligion org Privilege and Prophecy Robert Tobin,Robert Benjamin Tobin,2022 The Episcopal Church has long been regarded as the religion of choice among America s ruling elite Yet after World War II a new generation of leaders emerged eager to shake off the church s reputation as a bastion of privilege and transform it into an agent of social reform Taking an active part in the civil rights and anti war movements of the 1960s these leaders struggled to draw the church s membership into their vision of change Despite their shortcomings these activist leaders played a pivotal role in the evolution of Episcopalianism from establishment church into a more diverse and inclusive denomination American Reference Books Annual ,2000 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering Statistical Abstract of the United States ,2004 The Prophetic Pulpit Paul A. Djupe,Christopher P. Gilbert,2003 In this groundbreaking work Paul A Djupe and Christopher Gilbert analyze national data from a survey of over 2 400 Episcopal and Evangelical Lutheran Church of America clergy looking deeper into their motivations for political action Using these data the authors argue that clergy roles in politics and civic life result from the intersection of their personal beliefs and interests the specific needs of their congregation and community and ongoing influences from their denomination
