Fascinating People Who Died This Past Year William McDonald, 2012-10-30 Returning for its second year but reimagined in a new impulse format with a new title new cover new mission and new sensibility here is The Socialite Who Killed a Nazi with Her Bare Hands a pithier quirkier collection of the 164 best page turning obituaries from The New York Times Written by top journalists each story is a gem of a bio a full life in miniature There s the famous Steve Jobs including the story of how he was reunited with a sister he never knew the novelist Mona Simpson And the almost famous Ruth Stone a poet who worked in relative obscurity until she won the National Book Award at the age of 87 The behind the scenes like Arch West inventor of the Dorito who pulled America s snacks out of the 1950s doldrums and created a 5 billion a year product and the out there like self styled anarchist and maverick artist and real estate mogul and museum director Bob Cassilly who died at the controls of his bulldozer while building Cementland in St Louis And because of the chronological organization of the book the stories one next to the other make for an addictive as salted peanuts book Mark O Hatfield the celebrated antiwar Republican senator from Oregon next to Nancy Wake of the title the impoverished New Zealander who grew up to become a high society hostess and heroine of the French Resistance the socialite who did indeed kill a Nazi with her bare hands
