The Evil Among Us:

Evil Among Us Ken Driggs, 2000 In the fall of 1974 Robert E Kleasen invited two young missionaries to his house in Austin Texas for deer steaks Though apprehensive they felt compelled to go They should have bolted Though convicted of homicide Kleasen would later be released from death row on a technicality Upon hearing of the murders then LDS president Spencer W Kimball was so disturbed that a physician had to be summoned to his home The reader will mourn with the missionaries families as details of the crime unfold Monsters in and Among Us Caroline Joan Picart, Cecil E. Greek, 2007 Rather than assuming that film and the media tell us little about the reality of criminological phenomena Gothic criminology as instantiated in this collection of essays recognizes the complementarity of critical academic and aesthetic accounts of deviant behavior as intersecting with the public policy in complex non reductive ways Da Bonemon Bob Harrison, 2002-02-13 A killer has returned Nearly two decades after a series of murders bodies are again appearing in the Appalachians Special Agent Truman Eisenhower arrives in the rugged mountains bordering the Great Smoky Mountains National Park where he and local sheriff Bill Watson investigate the latest bizarre murder Theories abound about the strange ritualistic murders but Eisenhower has his own ideas ideas that don't turn to the supernatural Confronting the mystifying had become his specialty at the FBI but Eisenhower was unprepared for what waited for him in the backwoods of North Carolina Virtually nothing fit his preconceived notions of the area or of crime itself Both an obvious pattern and an obvious signature existed for this serial killer but that helped neither he nor Bill Watson in their initial pursuit of the killer It was not until Eisenhower began to confront his own past that the glimmer of an answer appeared a solution he did not want to find Set the rich and storied woods of rural America and populated with a cast of just slightly off center characters Da Bonemon is a novel of mystery horror and comedy and is definitely not a book for younger readers or for those people who are offended by sex and violence The Essential Works of Christianity Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Martin Luther, Henryk Sienkiewicz, Dante Alighieri, Henry Van Dyke, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, John Bunyan, Grace Livingston Hill, Thomas Paine, Voltaire, Lew Wallace, John Milton, Charles M. Osborne: or, the Country Gentleman: a tale for the times Joseph JONES (Perpetual Curate of Repton.), 1833 Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1845

The Annual Messages of the Presidents of Liberia 1848-2010 D. Elwood Dunn, 2011-05-04 Every year since 1848 Liberian presidents have delivered a state of the nation address to the Liberian National Legislature reflecting the various facets of the political, social, economic, and ethno-cultural situation of the country. Liberia, the first and for more than a century the only independent state in Sub-Saharan Africa, was founded in 1822 by an assortment of American non-governmental organizations as an asylum for black Americans. Similar to a comprehensive longitudinal study, this collection of speeches describes the social and economic development of an African country over a time span of more than a century and a half, from 1848 until 2010. As such, it represents the first major research contribution to the history of the political system of one of the first countries of the continent to attain independence. The speeches illuminate the area of conflict between the autochthonous and the black emigrant populations and also document the relations with the U.S. as founding nation and constitutional role model, especially in the 19th century. The presidents' speeches are a rich source of information for gaining a better understanding of Liberia's past and the country's current challenges and future prospects. With The Annual Messages of the Presidents of Liberia 1848-2010, the speeches scattered in various Liberian and American archives and libraries have now for the first time been collected and reconstructed in one single edition. Biographies of the presidents and a scholarly introduction by the editor supplement the 146 speeches. The edition is a valuable source of information on the history and political situation of Africa during the past 163 years. The editor and publisher, D. Elwood Dunn, teaches political science at Sewanee, The University of the South. From 1974 until 1980 he served in the government of Liberia, becoming a member of the cabinet. In 1979 he was editor of the Liberian Studies Journal from 1985 until 1995. Governor's Message and Annual Reports of the Public Officers of the State, and of the Boards of Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, and Other Agents of Public Institutions Or Interests of Virginia Virginia, 1849
