edition of Methods and Materials for Teaching the Gifted is an excellent introduction to gifted education and real world learning. The chapters of this comprehensive textbook are written by respected leaders in the field of gifted education. The authors review the unique needs of gifted learners and give current information on instructional planning and evaluation strategies for best practices and ongoing enhancement and support of gifted programs. Chapters include topics such as differentiated curricular design, extending learning through research writing, challenging instructional units, and developing leadership skills and innovative thinkers. Instructional practices such as problem based learning, technology literacy, independent study, simulation, and gaming and more are addressed. A special focus is given to using the Gifted Education Programming Standards and Common Core State Standards. The fourth edition provides updated information on funding sources and public relations strategies for gifted education programs. It also includes updated lists of books, teaching materials, websites, and other resources for teachers of the gifted.

Teaching Students With Medical, Physical, and Multiple Disabilities Bob Algozzine, Jim Ysseldyke, 2006-03-23. Support the academic performance and independence of students with medical and physical disabilities. If not properly addressed, a medical or physical disability that results in limited strength, mobility, vitality, and/or alertness can have as much of an adverse effect on a student's educational performance as a learning disability. Including a pretest, posttest, and key vocabulary terms, this highly informative guide discusses the issues educators and school nurses need to be aware of in order to effectively support students with medical, physical, and multiple disabilities in the special or general education classroom. Highlights include: Cognitive, academic, physical, behavioral, and communication characteristics of numerous medical and physical conditions; Helpful ideas for adjusting the classroom and school environments to suit the needs of students with medical and physical disabilities; Strategies for adapting instructional activities and materials for students with physical disabilities; Assistive technologies designed to enhance communication or mobility; Identification issues associated with multiple disabilities.
