Poetic Gesture Kristine S. Santilli, 2013-12-16 This study addresses the problem of meaning as it is conveyed by poetic language attempting to move beyond some of the obstacles and boundaries of contemporary critical approaches By providing a phenomenological context and through a theoretical contemplation of certain myths as embodiments of the tacit logic of poetry the book argues that poems convey meaning much the way that spontaneous unreadable gestures do Moving between theory and practice and drawing upon the poetry of Wallace Stevens whose work is embedded with a richness and complexity of gesture the author shows how the poetic text sustains and embodies an inconvertible ancient and innately human form of linguistic knowledge      Report of Secretary Modern Woodmen of America. The Thought of Death and the Memory of War Marc Crépon, 2013-10-01 War lays bare death and our relation to it And in the wars or more precisely the memories of war of the twentieth century images of the deaths of countless faceless or nameless others eclipse the singularity of each victim s death as well as the end of the world as such that each death signifies Marc Crépon s The Thought of Death and the Memory of War is a call to resist such images in which death is no longer actual death since it happens to anonymous others and to seek instead a world in which mourning the other whose mortality we always already share points us toward a cosmopolitics Crépon pursues this path toward a cosmopolitics of mourning through readings of works by Freud Heidegger Sartre Patocka Levinas Derrida and Ricœur and others The movement among these writers Crépon shows marks a way through and against twentieth century interpretation to argue that no war genocide or neglect of people is possible without suspending how one relates to the death of another human being A history of a critical strain in contemporary thought this book is as Rodolphe Gasché says in the Foreword a profound meditation on what constitutes evil and a rigorous and illuminating reflection on death community and world The translation of this work received financial support from the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs

The Philosophy of Heidegger Michael Watts,2011-01-01 In The Philosophy of Heidegger Michael Watts provides an overview of Heidegger s thoughts that is suitable for both beginning and advanced students Free from jargon and the standard idioms of academic philosophical writing Watts uses several illustrations and concrete examples to introduce key Heideggrian concepts such as thrownness the clearing authenticity falling moods nullity temporality Ereignis enframing dwelling and Gelassenheit He avoids over involvement with the secondary literature and with wider philosophical debates which gives the writing an immediate accessible voice Ranging widely across Heidegger s writings the book displays an impressively thorough knowledge of his corpus navigating the difficult relationship between the earlier and later texts and giving the reader a strong sense of the fundamental motives and overall continuity of Heidegger s thought

The Works of Hugh Latimer ... Hugh Latimer,1844 Friedrich Nietzsche Julian Young,2010-03-08 In this beautifully written account Julian Young provides the most comprehensive biography available today of the life and philosophy of the nineteenth century German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche Young deals with the many puzzles created by the conjunction of Nietzsche s personal history and his work why the son of a Lutheran pastor developed into the self styled Antichrist why this archetypical Prussian came to loath Bismarck s Prussia and why this enemy of feminism preferred the company of feminist women Setting Nietzsche s thought in the context of his times the rise of Prussian militarism anti Semitism Darwinian science the Youth and emancipationist movements as well as the death of God Young emphasises the decisive influence of Plato and of Richard Wagner on Nietzsche s attempted reform of Western culture

The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo,2012-12-01 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development

The Philosopher's Gaze David Michael Levin, 2023-04-28 David Michael Levin s ongoing exploration of the moral character and enlightenment potential of vision takes a new direction in The Philosopher s Gaze Levin examines texts by Descartes Husserl Wittgenstein Nietzsche Heidegger Benjamin Merleau Ponty and L vinas using our culturally dominant mode of perception and the philosophical discourse it has generated as the site for his critical reflections on the moral culture in which we are living In Levin s view all these philosophers attempted to understand one way or another the distinctive pathologies of the modern age But every one also attempted to envision if only through the faintest of traces traces of mutual recognition traces of another way of looking and seeing the prospects for a radically different lifeworld The world after all inevitably reflects back to us the character the reach and range of our vision In these provocative essays the author draws on the language of hermeneutical phenomenology and at the same time refines phenomenology itself as a method of working with our experience and thinking critically about the culture in which we live This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1999 David Michael Levin s
