MEGAPACK ®: Robert Moore Williams Robert Moore Williams, 2015-08-26 Robert Moore Williams 1907-1977 was an American writer primarily of science fiction. He wrote not only under his own name but as John S. Browning, H. H. Hermon Russell Storm and E. K. Jarvis, a house name shared with other writers. Rereading his work in preparation for assembling this volume, we were impressed by how well much of his fiction holds up today. His writing style is smooth and crisp and he avoids scientific lectures, preferring to let the plots speak for themselves. Included in this volume are PLANET OF THE GODS, THE NEXT TIME WE DIE, SINISTER PARADISE, THOMPSON'S CAT, PUBLICITY STUNT, MARTIAN ADVENTURE, BRIDGE OF LIFE, BE IT EVER THUS, THE LOST WARSHIP, THE ACCIDENTAL MURDERS. If you enjoy this ebook, don't forget to search your favorite ebook store for Wildside Press Megapack to see more of the 250 volumes in this series covering adventure, historical fiction, mysteries, westerns, ghost stories, science fiction, and much, much more.

An Impossible Marriage Pamela Hansford Johnson, 2018-10-04 font size 1 As her work reappears, another missing jigsaw piece is replaced. Independent font size. Described by the New York Times upon her death as one of Britain's best-known novelists, plunge yourself into the wry world of Pamela Hansford Johnson in this story of seduction and marriage, perfect for fans of Elizabeth Jane Howard and Barbara Pym. It's between the wars and Christine Christie, her friend, is tired of London, her job in a travel agency, her friends, and the young men she's being set up with. So when by chance she meets the older Ned Skelton, who seems sophisticated and experienced, she quickly becomes besotted. Before Christie knows it, they are engaged. But will marriage to a man she doesn't know well truly offer this young woman an escape? Or is she walking into another prison of her own making? A classic coming-of-age story set in the 1930s by one of Britain's best-loved and almost forgotten novelists. A story so vivid it might be the memoir of a real person. Britannia and Eve. Praise for Pamela Hansford Johnson: Witty, satirical, and deftly malicious. Anthony Burgess: A remarkable craftswoman. A. S. Byatt: Hansford Johnson at her wittiest is Waugh mingled with Malcolm Bradbury. Ruth Rendell: A writer whose memory fully deserves to be kept alive. Jonathan Coe: Kaleidoscope: my life's multiple reflections. Marcela Del Sol, 2016-01-01 Kaleidoscope is Marcela's Del Sol's first work of fiction, a collection of beautifully written reflections about the life and struggles of a woman co-existing with Post-Traumatic Stress Syndrome (PTSD) and Dissociative Identity Syndrome (DID). Marcela Del Sol is an Australian writer, philanthropist, and social activist. She moved to Australia from her home country, Chile, as a young adult and a few years ago began to share her physical existence with multiple alters of her character following a serious car accident. As the incapacitating symptoms of her disorder started to appear in Marcela's daily life, she not only learned how to adapt to living as multiple alters in the same body but also found the courage to thrive under challenging circumstances In Kaleidoscope Marcela shares her own personal coping mechanisms and strategies through the voice of her fictional character Lucia Join Lucia and her captivating alters on an extraordinary journey into the mind and heart of a woman who lives with Dissociative Identity Syndrome The deeply compelling chapters narrated by the various alters of the author and her main fictional antagonist reveal much about the strength of the human spirit and its ability to find a way back from the darkest of places where everything seems lost Impossible Citizens

Neha Vora,2013-03-18 Indian communities have existed in the Gulf emirate of Dubai for more than a century Since the 1970s workers from South Asia have flooded into the emirate enabling Dubai s huge construction boom They now compose its largest noncitizen population Though many migrant families are middle class and second third or even fourth generation residents Indians cannot become legal citizens of the United Arab Emirates Instead they are all classified as temporary guest workers In Impossible Citizens Neha Vora draws on her ethnographic research in Dubai s Indian dominated downtown to explore how Indians live suspended in a state of permanent temporariness While their legal status defines them as perpetual outsiders Indians are integral to the Emirati nation state and its economy At the same time Indians even those who have established thriving diasporic neighborhoods in the emirate disavow any interest in formally belonging to Dubai and instead consider India their home Vora shows how these multiple and conflicting logics of citizenship and belonging contribute to new understandings of contemporary citizenship migration and national identity ones that differ from liberal democratic models and that highlight how Indians rather than Emiratis are the quintessential yet impossible citizens of Dubai The
